COURSE REGISTRATION SUMMARY
UNIVERSITY OF HAWAIʻI – WEST OʻAHU
FALL 2001

In Fall 2001, 84 courses were taught at the UH West Oʻahu, resulting in 2,228 registrations for a total of 6,647 student semester hours (SSH) and course FTE of 445 (Table 1). There were 102 classes, excluding directed reading, practicum and senior project classes and the average class size was 20 students.

Total SSH decreased less than 1% from the previous Fall semester but was 13% higher compared to Fall 1997 (Table 2). Most of the gain occurred in the Division of Social Sciences, from 2,698 to 3,426, an increase of 27%. The Division of Social Sciences accounted for more than half of the total SSH in Fall 2001 (Figure 2, Table 1).

Compared to Fall 1997, number of classes increased by 12 and the average class size dropped from 22 to 20 (Table 3).

For Public Administration, under the Division of Professional Studies, number of classes increased by 5 from the previous semester, however, the average class size decreased from 27 to 17 students. Average class size for prior Fall semesters back to 1997 ranged from 22 to 29. In general, classes were smaller this semester; 14 out of 19 (74%) classes had enrollment of less than 20. Some of the smaller classes were taught at military bases such as Fort Shafter and Tripler Army Medical Center.
