

The 10th International Shoebox Sculpture Exhibition

Organized by the University of Hawaii Art Gallery

The traveling exhibition features the work of 81 artists invited from around the world including, Australia, Canada, Chile, China, Finland, France, Germany, Japan, Korea, Norway, Spain, Taiwan, United Kingdom, and the United States.

A triennial exhibition, The International Shoebox Sculpture Exhibition challenges artists to work in a variety of sculptural ideas, styles and media within the small-scale of a shoebox. The format allows for the ease and economy of shipping, while providing a broad exposure to contemporary sculpture in metal, glass, ceramic, wood, fiber, plastic, and mixed media.

Participation fee: $1,750 for 6 weeks, plus outgoing shipping – double bookings available.

Institutions outside the continental United States must pay custom fees and for all incoming and outgoing shipping charges to the U.S. border.

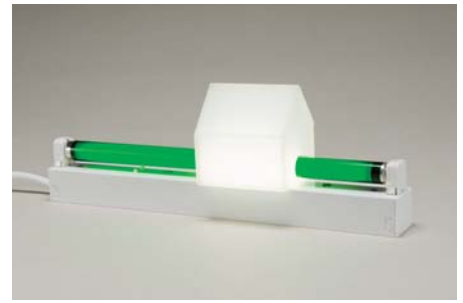

Insurance: The University of Hawaii Art Gallery covers insurance for duration for traveling itinerary.

Crates: 9 crates – approximate total weight 1,300 lbs (crates can be handled by two people).

Supplemental: Includes 20 catalogues – 148 pages, full color illustrations and promotional resources.

For information or booking contact: Lisa Yoshihara, call 808-956-6888, fax 808-956-9659 or email shoebox.sculpture@gmail.com
