Dean of the College of Arts and Humanities

The Office of the Dean of the College of Arts and Humanities directs and coordinates the activities, curricular, personnel and budget affairs of the College of Arts and Humanities and its ancillary support components including budget management, program management, staff supervision, community relations, grievance and litigation, and travel.

The Dean reports to the Office of the President of the University and functions with the authority delegated by the President.

Dean of the College of Languages, Linguistics and Literature

The Office of the Dean of the College of Languages, Linguistics and Literature directs and coordinates the activities, curricular, personnel and budget affairs of the College and its ancillary support components including budget management, program management, staff supervision, community relations, grievance and litigation, and travel.

The Dean reports to the Office of the President of the University and functions with the authority delegated by the President.

Dean of the College of Natural Sciences

The Office of the Dean of the College of Natural Sciences directs and coordinates the activities, curricular, personnel and budget affairs of the College and its ancillary support components including budget management, program management, staff supervision, community relations, grievance and litigation, and travel.

The Dean reports to the Office of the President of the University and functions with the authority delegated by the President.

Dean of the College of Social Sciences

The Office of the Dean of the College of Social Sciences directs and coordinates the activities, curricular, personnel and budget affairs of the College and its ancillary support components including budget management, program management, staff supervision, community relations, grievance and litigation, and travel.

The Dean reports to the Office of the President of the University and functions with the authority delegated by the President.
The Center for Biographical Research supports interdisciplinary study of all aspects of biography by defining the field, understanding biography as a literary genre, promoting historical inquiry through research, collecting archival materials, enhancing the writing of biography, and encouraging work leading to the integration of all disciplines contributing to biography. The Director of the Center has direct responsibility for developing all aspects of the program. He reports directly to the Dean of the College.
The primary function of the Center for Interpretation and Translation is to provide an academic program in interpretation and/or translation, with the opportunity to earn BOR-approved certificates in either or both. In addition, the Center provides certain services upon request, principally in the area of translation of written materials and various kinds of interpretation. The Center serves as a resource locus for students and faculty. Through the director the Center maintains close association with external agencies to assure complimentarity. Acting on behalf of the Dean of the College, the Director of the Center has the responsibility for developing, formulating, administering and overseeing all aspects of the academic and service operations in the Center.
The Language Resource and Telecommunications Center is a high-tech unit which plays a vital role relative to the instructional, research and service operations of the College, the University, the State, the region, the nation and internationally. It has responsibility for satellite earth system, language telecommunications, language and language acquisition video studio, language audio-visual services, shortwave radio station, foreign language word processing facility, foreign language resource bank, media classroom design and management (languages), and special services. Acting on behalf of the Dean of the College, it has direct responsibility for developing, formulating, administering and overseeing all policies and procedures relevant to its operation within the College and the University as a whole as well as externally (DOE and other State agencies, the State, the region, the nation and internationally). Negotiates contracts with appropriate agencies; is responsible for compliance with FCC, FAA and other federal and state regulations.
The Manoa Writing Program is intended to improve the writing component of the core and major programs at the Manoa campus. It is responsible for testing incoming students, placing them in the appropriate courses, and overseeing the approval of courses to be designated in any given semester as writing intensive. The program is administered by a faculty director with the consultation and advice of an advisory board. The director is responsible to the Dean of the College of Languages, Linguistics and Literature for implementation of the goals and programs of the overall Program.