

DOING FIELDWORK IN JAPAN II

Panel Discussion

Center for Japanese Studies Seminar Series

Panelists

Dr. David Johnson, Associate Professor of Sociology, UHM
“Getting in and Getting along in the Prosecutor’s Office”

Dr. Sheila Smith, Research Fellow, EWC
“In Search of the Japanese State”

Dr. Christine Yano, Associate Professor of Anthropology, UHM
“Unraveling the Web of Song”

Drs. Johnson, Smith, and Yano will provide lively, personal accounts of conducting fieldwork in Japan, chronicling the challenges they faced within a wide-range of settings (the prosecutors office, the politics of policy making, and the entertainment industry).

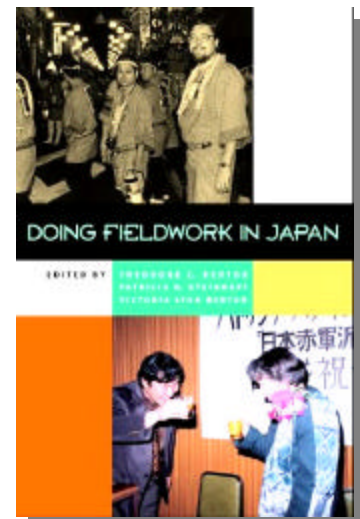

Date: Thursday, October 21, 2004

Time: 3:00 pm – 4:30 pm

Place: Tokioka Room (Moore 319)

located on East-West Road across from the Center for Korean Studies building.

The presentations are based on their articles which appeared in DOING FIELDWORK IN JAPAN, edited by Theodore C. Bestor, Patricia Steinhoff, and Victoria Lyon Bestor from UH Press (2003). (In the spring 2004, Patricia Steinhoff, Robert Smith and Takie Lebra participated in the first panel on doing fieldwork in Japan.)

CJS seminars are free and open to the public. For more information, please visit our website at www.hawaii.edu/cjs/seminarseries.html. For disability access, please contact the Center at 956-2665.
