“Radiation and Health: Thyroid Cancer Risk” Introduction

What is the relation between thyroid cancer and radiation? What are we seeing in this film?
What updates on Fukushima radiation, health impacts, and remaining uncertainties?

4:55 Documentary Film “A2-B-C” by director Ian Thomas Ash (71 minutes)

In Fukushima towns following March 2011 radioactive cesium leaks, families face uncertainty about evacuation, radiation exposure, decontamination, and children's health. Mothers take radiation monitoring into their own hands, while health screening of children begins. Hawai'i premier of this award-winning film; one screening only.
