Illustrating Japan: From Ancient Times to Modern Manga
絵本の国、日本
by Takahiro Sasaki
Professor, Shidō Bunko, Keio University

Prof. Takahiro Sasaki 佐々木孝浩 of Keio University will be discussing the development of Japanese prints and books, the different formats, the relationship between the book bindings and the contents, and how modern Japanese Manga evolves. Register early @ http://guides.library.manoa.hawaii.edu/registration

Recommended for anybody who is interested in or majoring in:

Public Lecture
"Illustrating Japan: From Ancient Times to Modern Manga"

February 23 (Tue) 3:30-5:30 pm
Open Lecture with an English Interpreter
(Hamilton Library Room 306)

Pre-registration required.
http://guides.library.manoa.hawaii.edu/registration

Sponsored by the Center for Japanese Studies, the Japan-U.S. Friendship Commission, the Northeast Asia Council of the Association for Asian Studies, UHM East Asian Languages & Literatures, the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa Library