The Center for Japanese Studies (CJS), UHM, is offering a scholarship for a UHM student to participate in the 67th Japan-America Student Conference (JASC), July 30 – August 23, 2015. Conference sites in Japan: Hiroshima, Shimane, Kyoto, and Tokyo.

The Scholarship includes

$3500 participation fee (which covers food, lodging and group travel for the duration of the conference)

[Participation fee does not include the roundtrip airfare from Honolulu to the JASC orientation site in the U.S. Student is responsible for covering this expense.]

Requirements for the Scholarship:

1. UHM classified full-time undergraduate or graduate student status at time of application and during the Conference
2. Evidence of high academic achievement and promise
3. Proof of acceptance to participate in JASC

How to Apply for the Scholarship:

1. Submit a copy of the full JASC application to the Center for Japanese Studies (Moore Hall 216) a week after the application is due to JASC. JASC deadline: Dec. 31, 2014. CJS Scholarship deadline: Jan. 7, 2015.

2015 JASC information and application can be found at www.iscdc.org/jasc/2015.

Please note that students must submit their applications directly to JASC by Dec. 31, 2014 along with a non-refundable application fee of $20 to participate in the conference. To qualify for the scholarship, they must also submit a copy of the full application to the Center for Japanese Studies, UHM, by Jan. 7, 2015.

This is an excellent leadership development opportunity for students who will attend workshops and participate in discussion groups with other college students from across the U.S. and Japan.
