

The Interview

1. Will I be interviewed as part of the selection process?

Applications are screened by a faculty committee to develop a short list of potential candidates. These candidates will be contacted by the Program Director to set up an interview usually in early April