Volunteer Information

Kumuola Foundation

(1) 808.284.6798 (e) kumuolahawaii@gmail.com

http://www.kumuolahawaii.com/

- Community workdays every 2nd Saturday of the month from 9a - 1p. To participate in Kānewai’s Volunteer Program.

Mālama Maunalua

377 Keahole Street Suite E-209 Honolulu HI 96825

(t) 808.395.5050 (e) info@malamamaunalua.org

http://malamamaunalua.org/

- Dedicated to protecting and restoring Maunalua Bay by removing invasive alien algae, reducing runoff of sediments and pollutants from the land.
- Volunteer opportunities include office work and outreach.

Ka Papa Lo‘i O Kānewai

2645 Dole St Honolulu 96822

(t) 808.956.0640 (e) kanewai@hawaii.edu

http://manoa.hawaii.edu/hshk/ka-papa-loi-o-kanewai/

- Community workdays every first Saturday of the month. Students interested in volunteering outside or in addition to Kānewai’s First Saturday can participate in Kānewai’s Volunteer Program.

Paepae ‘O He‘eia

46-077 Ipaka St. Kāne‘ohe HI, 96744

(t) 808.236.6178 (e) admin@paepaeoheeia.org

http://paepaeoheeia.org/

- Friday Mornings at the fishpond, 8a-12p. Community Workdays are held every 2nd and 4th Saturday most months from 8:30a-12p. RSVPs are required for both events.

Ko‘ala Farms

P.O. Box 630 Wa‘ianae

(t) 808.696.4954 (e) info@kaala.org

http://www.kaala.org/

- Ka‘ala Farms mission is to reclaim and preserve the living culture of the Po‘e Kahiko (people of old) in order to strengthen the kinship relationships between the ‘āina (land, that which nourishes) and all forms of life necessary to sustain the balance of life on these vulnerable islands.

Hoʻoulu ‘Āina

3659 Kalihi Street ‘Oahu, Kalihi, Hawaii 96819

(t) 808.841.7504 (e) ajaina@kkv.net

http://www.hoouluaina.com/

- Hoʻoulu ‘Āina community workdays are held every 3rd Saturday of the month from 8:30a-12p and is located at 3659 Kalihi St. Wednesday community workdays are every Wednesday from 930a-12p. Growing Farmers every Thursday from 930a-12p.

Waikalua loko I‘a

(1) 808.392.1284 (e) rosalyn.dias@gmail.com

http://www.waikalualokofishpond.org/

- Waikalua loko I‘a’s mission is to preserve, stabilize, and beautify the Waikalua Loko Fishpond and to educate the community about ancient Hawaiian and modern Hawaiian fishpond practices. Visit the website for more volunteer information.

---

Contact Information

Iolani Palace

364 South King St. Honolulu 96813

(t) 808.522.0821 (e) volunteer@iolanipalace.org

http://www.iolanipalace.org/Contact/Volunteer.aspx

- Water and lunch provided.

Mokaeua Island Restoration Project

Contact: Kahaulani Kupihea

(t) 808.282.8012 (e) mokaeua@gmail.com

http://www.kaimakana.org/mirp.htm

- To volunteer leave an email with your name, phone number, group name (if applicable), # of volunteers and # of people that cannot swim. A waiver must be signed.

Papahana Kuaola

46 Halei Rd. Kaneohe, HI 96744

(t) 808.447.7694 (e) waiapa143@gmail.com

http://papahanakuaola.com/

- He‘eia stream restoration every 3rd Saturday of the month from 9a-12p Contact Person: Kainoa Pestana. Lā Hana Waipao community workday every 4th Saturday of the month from 8a-12p Contact Person: Ana Kon
CONSERVATION & RESTORATION

HoaʻAina O Makaha
84-766 Lahaina Street Waiʻanae HI, 96792
(t) 808.695.8978 (e) contact@hoa-aina.org
http://www.hoaoinamakaha.org/

Mālama HoaʻAina Community Workdays 2nd Saturday of every month 9a-12p. Light lunch is provided if available. Work can include harvesting, weeding, mulching, planting and much more.

CONSERVATION & RESTORATION

Hui O Koʻolaulo`opoko
1051 Keolu Drive #208 Kailua HI, 96734
(t) 808.277.5611 (e) mlanani@huihawaii.org
http://www.huihawaii.org

Hui O Koʻolaulo`opoko (HOK) is a 501(c)3 non-profit watershed management group established in 2007 to work with communities to improve water quality through ecosystem restoration and storm water management, focusing specifically in the Koʻolaulo`opoko region - from Makapuu to Kualoa. HOK implements innovative, on-the-ground projects that effectively manage and protect water quality and natural resources in Hawaiʻi. Check out the “Get Involved” link on the main website for volunteer opportunities at the Heʻeia and Hakipuʻu Streams.

OTHER VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Hiʻipaka LLC & Waimea Valley
59-864 Kamehameha Hwy. Haleʻiwa HI, 96712
(t) 808.638.5855 (e) diane@hawaii.org
http://waimeavalley.net/volunteer

Volunteers join efforts in fulfilling Waimea Valley’s vision to ensure protection, and preservation of cultural and natural resources, for Native Hawaiians and the entire Hawaii community and the world. Check the website link to see volunteer opportunities.

Kākoʻo ‘Oiwi
46-406 Kamehameha Hwy. Kāne‘ohe HI, 96744
(e) info@kakoooiwi.org
http://kakoooiwi.org/

Community workdays are the 2nd Saturday of each month from 8:30a-12p at the address shown above. Workdays include clearing invasive vegetation, weeding, maintaining or building ‘auwai for new lo‘i kalo. RSVP at the website listed.

ENVIRONMENTAL/SUSTAINABILITY

KAHEA The Hawaiian-Environmental Alliance

Contact: Lauren Muneoka
(t) 808.524.8220 (e) lauren@KAHEA.org
http://kahea.org/

Volunteers can help in the office, assist at events, host an ‘awa circle, collect petitions and testimony, offer Hawaiian language translations, and organize community meetings. KAHEA is also in need of writers, photographers, videographers and web gurus, cultural specialists, education specialists, and resource experts.

OTHER VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Kalaeloa Heritage Park
http://www.khfoundation.org/

Kaniakapupu

Nā Ala Hele Trail Restoration
https://hawaiitrails.ehawaii.gov/

Mālama Na Honu
P.O. Box 1078 Haleiwa HI, 96712
(e) info@malamanahonu.org
http://malamanahonu.org/index.asp

Mālama Na Honu is a non-profit organization dedicated to protecting Hawaiian sea turtles through education, public awareness, and conservation in the spirit of aloha. There are three scheduled shifts on weekdays and four scheduled shifts on weekends. Shifts last for about three hours. Volunteers are asked to commit to a minimum of two scheduled shifts a month and must be 18 years of age. All new volunteers will complete an initial training session. To participate, Email info@malamanahonu.org

ENVIRONMENTAL/SUSTAINABILITY

Kupu Hawai‘i

677 Ala Moana Blvd, Suite 1200 Honolulu 96813
(t) 808.735.1221 (e) info@kupuhawaii.org
www.kupuhawaii.org

Kupu Hawai‘i offers volunteer opportunities in administrative support or in field studies such as: natural resource management, renewable energy, energy conservation, and other green job skills. A list of “Green Events” are listed on their monthly calendar at kupuhawaii.org

EPIC ENVIRONMENTAL/SUSTAINABILITY

Earth Trust

1118 Maunawili Rd. Kailua HI, 96734
(t) 415.662.3264 (e) dw@earthtrust.us
http://earthtrust.org/

Earth Trust tackles environmental issues that other organizations have given up on or failed at. The organization brings together donors who are passionate about saving earth’s life systems.

Lyon Arboretum - UH Mānoa

3850 Mānoa Rd. Honolulu 96822
Contact: Jill Laughlin
(t) 808.988.0456 (e) rsears@hawaii.edu
https://manoa.hawaii.edu/lyonarboretum/

Hours: Monday-Friday 8a-4p, Saturday 9a-3p, closed on Sundays and State/Federal holidays. Long-term and single-event volunteers must complete an application form.
The HCA helps promote strategic environmental stewardship, stimulate community participation in resource management, and leverage capacity across the Hawaiian Islands while integrating Native Hawaiian culture into current natural resource conservation practice. Check out their events calendar for community workdays with partnered organizations.

‘Ahahui Mālama I Ka Lōkahi
P.O. Box 720 Kailua HI, 96734
(e) email@ahahui.net
http://www.ahahui.net/

‘Ahahui Mālama I Ka Lōkahi is a coalition of Hawaiians and non-Hawaiians devoted to the preservation of native species and ecosystem, and the importance of their relationship to Hawaiian culture. Visit the ‘Ahahui Blog for the latest news, activities and volunteer opportunities.

Kōkua Kalîhi Valley
2239 N. School St. Honolulu HI, 96819
(t) 808.791.9400 (e) volunteer@kkv.net, http://www.kkv.net/

Kōkua Kalîhi Valley works toward healing, reconciling and the alleviating the suffering in Kalîhi Valley, by serving communities, families and individuals through strong relationships that honor culture and foster health and harmony. Interested in volunteering specifically at Kōkua Kalîhi Valley email volunteer@kkv.net

Kana‘iolowalu
P.O. Box 75331 Honolulu HI, 96836
(t) 808.973.0099 (e) kokuana@kainiolowalu.org http://www.kainiolowalu.org/

Kana‘iolowalu is a project of the Native Hawaiian roll commission. It is a campaign to reunify Native Hawaiians in self-recognition by enrolling Native Hawaiians and supporters in this declaration.

Nahoku ‘Ala
1012 Pl‘ikoi Street Honolulu HI, 96814
(t) 808.321.2062 (e) chi@nahokuala.org http://www.nahokuala.org/#home

Nahoku ‘Ala is a nonprofit SAT preparation program dedicated to educating, inspiring, and empowering underprivileged youth in Hawaii. Volunteer to teach, counsel, oversee programs, manage finances and support the administration. Check out their website for further information.

Hawaii Conservation Alliance (HCA)
677 Ala Moana Blvd. Suite 320 Honolulu HI, 96813
(t) 808.687.6151
(e) coordinator@hawaiiconservation.org http://www.hawaiiconservation.org/

The HCA helps promote strategic environmental stewardship, stimulate community participation in resource management, and leverage capacity across the Hawaiian Islands while integrating Native Hawaiian culture into current natural resource conservation practice. Check out their events calendar for community workdays with partnered organizations.

Native Hawaiian Student Services
2600 Campus Rd. QLCCS Rm. 104 Honolulu HI, 96822
(t) 808.956.3805 (e) nhss@hawaii.edu http://manoa.hawaii.edu/nhss/

Interested individuals will receive an average of 1-2 emails per month of upcoming community service events. Volunteer work will range from mentoring high school students on campus, aloha ‘aina outdoor work, public speaking practice on college panels, participation in skill building leadership sessions, and program planning/support for community events.

Kai Makana
P.O. Box 22719 Honolulu HI, 96823
(t) 808.282-8012 (e) kaimakana@gmail.com http://www.kaimakana.org/index.htm

Kai Makana educates the public to better understand and preserve marine life and the ocean environment. Through educating youth in relationship and community-based programs, Kai Makana motivates people to protect, preserve, and respect the ocean as an ecosystem central to our health, wellness and happiness. To volunteer contact Jenna Ishii at jenna.ishii@gmail.com or by phone at 808.228.0133.

OHA
560 N. Nimitz Hwy. Suite 200 Honolulu HI, 96817
(t) 808.594.1835 (e) ohahr@oha.org http://www.oha.org/jobs

OHA provides Student Helper opportunities for students to gain insight into the mission and programs of the agency, and to become involved with efforts towards bettering the conditions of Native Hawaiians.

Keiki O Ka ‘Āina Family Learning Centers
3097 Kaliihi Street Honolulu HI, 96819
(t) 808.843.2502 (e) contact@koka.org http://www.koka.org/

Keiki O Ka ‘Āina’s (KOKA) mission is to serve the educational needs of Native Hawaiian families within the context of culturally competent educational and family strengthening programs. The organization provides support for parents and preschool age children. Sign up to volunteer at www.koka.org

Nā Kūpuna A Me Nā Kākō‘o O Hālawa
677 Ala Moana Blvd. Suite 702, Honolulu HI, 96813
(t) 808.550.2661 (e) info@HACBED.org http://www.hacbed.org/about-us/clients/nknkhi

Nā Kūpuna A Me Nā Kākō‘o O Hālawa is a grassroots organization formed in 1997 to protect and advocate for Native cultural and sacred sites in North Hālawa Valley on O‘ahu and to facilitate cultural and community-based education programs for its protection. Community workdays are the first Saturday of every month. To volunteer, visit the website and submit an online form with your name, number, and email address. For questions and concerns visit http://www.hacbed.org/about-us/clients/nknkhi