CALL FOR PAPERS

The Reshaping of Philippine Studies: Contending viewpoints, voices, and knowledges

In the era of global mobilities and fluid identities, Philippine Studies is constantly reframed, negotiated, or contested by scholars and academics. New theoretical and methodological directions emerge that reflect tensions between home-grown and diasporic scholarship, contending visions of nation, or new positions of identification. Mindful of these competing viewpoints, voices, and knowledges, the Philippine Studies Association (PSA) invites original presentations that engage with, explore, or bear upon, these directions. Pre-formed panels are preferred.

Email submissions to philstudiesassociation@gmail.com and 2018natcon@philstudies.org.

Visit us at our website www.philstudies.org for more information.

Important Dates

Deadline for panel and paper proposals: March 5, 2018
Notification to applicants: May 1, 2018
Early bird registration: May 15, 2018 - June 30, 2018

Conference Fees

- PhP 3,500 for participants who have been based in the Philippines since June 2017
- US$ 150 for participants based abroad
- PhP 2,000 and US$ 75, respectively, for students who can present proof of current enrollment
- Early bird registrants can avail of the discounted rate of PhP 3,150 and US$ 120, respectively.

Visit us at our website www.philstudies.org for more information.