

University of Hawaii Diving Safety Program
QUALIFIED UH SCIENTIFIC DIVER WANTED

One or more active-status UH Scientific Divers are needed to participate in the following UH diving operations:

Project Name: Waimea Microbial Observatory

Principal Investigator: Craig Nelson

UH Campus and Department: Mānoa Dept Oceanography/CMORE

Lead Diver: Needed

Dates Needed: Week of June 17 (likely June 20-21 weather permitting)

Location of Diving Operations: Waimea Bay, North Shore, O'ahu

Brief Description of Diving Activity: "Bioblitz" collections of benthic vouchers of limu, coral, sand, inverts, cca, etc.

Diver(s) must in be in Active status, with depth rating of at least:

___ 40 fsw X 60fsw ___ 100fsw ___ 130fsw ___ >130fsw

The following endorsements or skills are desired (D) or required (R):

R Dive Computer

R Nitrox

D Biological Survey / Data Collection

R Sample Collection

[QUEST field school graduate or equiv. training in Hawaii marine life identification and survey skills]

Need is:

One-Time

Compensation:

Expenses Only

Direct Inquiries to:

Name: Craig Nelson

Phone: (805) 705-3497 cell or (808) 956-0566 office

Email: craig.nelson@hawaii.edu