OPIHI: Student Evaluation

1. I enjoyed working on this project:
Not very much 1 2 3 4 A lot 5

2. What was your overall impression of the field trips?
Did not enjoy field trips 1 2 3 4 Enjoyed field trips very much 5

3. How well can you identify marine invertebrates (with help of ID cards and books)?
Not very well at all 1 2 3 4 Very well 5

4. How well can you identify algae (with help of ID cards and books)?
Not very well at all 1 2 3 4 Very well 5

5. How well can you collect data using transects and quadrats?
Not very well at all 1 2 3 4 Very well 5

6. If someone asked you to monitor a newly discovered intertidal area using transects and quadrats and having identification resources (e.g. books) on hand, do you think you could?
No 1 2 3 4 Yes 5

7. I have become more interested in the intertidal as a result of learning about it and going on field trips.
No 1 2 3 4 Yes 5

8. What do you know now about the intertidal that you didn’t know before?
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

9. What did you like most about this project?
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

10. What did you like least about this project?
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________