SB 429 – RELATING TO THE UNIFORM EMPLOYEE AND STUDENT ONLINE PRIVACY PROTECTION ACT

Chairs Keith-Agaran and Kahele, Vice Chairs Rhoads and Kidani, and members of the committees:

The University of Hawai'i (UH) takes no position on SB 429 that proposes to adopt uniform laws on protecting the online accounts of employees and students from employers and educational institutions.

UH, however, would like to note an issue of concern. On page 3, lines 17-21, through page 4, lines 1-9, in reference to “protected personal online account,” the University’s interpretation of this language is that UH accounts and resources are exempted.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide this testimony.
