

The Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Canadian Children (CSEC)

A study of the commercial sexual exploitation of children in Canada comparable to that completed for Mexico and the United States has not yet been undertaken. Rather, selected aspects of Canadian experiences with the CSEC have been incorporated into two reports, both of which may be downloaded without cost from the websites identified below:

Social Interactions Among Paedophiles: A Sociological Investigation

By

Pierre Tremblay

http://caster.ssw.upenn.edu/~restes/CSEC_Files/Tremblay_R2_020523.pdf

Background Paper of the North American Regional Consultation on the Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children

held in Philadelphia on December 2-3, 2001. The consultation was held in preparation for the 2nd World Congress Against the Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children held in Yokohama, Japan in December 17-20, 2001.

<http://www.focalpointngo.org/yokohama/latestnews/NARegionalConsult.htm>

Additional information concerning Canadian experiences with the CSEC may be obtained from the following websites:

End Child Prostitution, Child Pornography and Trafficking of Children For Sexual Purposes (ECPAT)/Canada (via Beyond Borders, a new affiliate of ECPAT International)

http://www.ecpat.net/eng/Ecpat_network/Groups/groups.asp?regionid=2

Save the Children/Canada

<http://www.seyso.net/>

http://www.seyso.net/resources/pdf/proj_3.pdf