

Catch the Center on Disability Studies on the Airwaves!

The Center on Disability Studies, as part of its outreach initiative, produces a monthly community television program called Disability Perspectives airing on OLELO Channel 54.

The segment series combines documentary and magazine style formats with specific topic features in each one hour episode. Episodes include conversations on work and self employment, cultural and special education initiatives, human rights, disability culture, and other issues important to our communities. Also showcased will be videos produced by the CDS.

Air Times:

Every Friday in July
at 6 PM (HST) on Channel 54
Or watch live on the web at www.olelo.org (click on Views 54)

Disability Perspectives welcomes ideas for content. If you have a video you would like to present or an issue you want discussed, please email cccrocke@hawaii.edu.

Episode Twelve (July):

Landry Fukunaga hosts Disability Perspectives episode Out and About with Art, chatting it up on everything art with Susan Miller, Project Director of the Medicaid Infrastructure Grant, CDS; Nathan Say, Co-chair and Project Coordinator of Abled Hawaii Artists (AHA), CDS; and Reuben Young, Art Instructor for Rehabilitation Hospital of the Pacific, Louis Vuitton Creative Arts Program.

Don't miss this inspirational and informative talk show!

Disability Perspectives Production Team: Sara Banks, Charmaine Crockett, Dalen Kahiapo.