Dear LISAG Members & Friends,

Thank you for your generous donations to the LIS Flood Fund. Altogether we received $20,000.00. The monies are being used to reimburse the students who lost materials and belongings in the lockers. There are a number of additional proposals for using the money. Hopefully it will help to reinstitute some of the facilities when LIS gets to return to its home in Hamilton Library.

Almost all the contents of LIS areas in Hamilton Library were a total loss including: all library office records, faculty office contents, classroom resources, computers, the LIS Alumni Group archives. LIS students and faculty are doing an incredible job of coping with the temporary facilities that they have been assigned. It was very gratifying to all those involved that you cared enough to give such overwhelming support. Again many thanks. There is a list of donors to the Flood Fund that appears elsewhere in this newsletter.

To move to a happier more positive event, this is the fortieth anniversary of LIS. On February 8, 2005, forty-one LIS alumni, faculty, students and friends met at the Outrigger Canoe Club for a dinner of Pacific Rim cuisine. It was a welcome relief and gratifying that so many alumni could attend. A number of the attendees spoke of their libraries and projects, which added to the encouraging tone of the evening.

Joseph Yue reports that, thanks to the LIS Web Team, we have a new web page for the LIS Alumni Group. The web address is: http://www.hawaii.edu/slis/organizations/alumni.html. I hope you will all visit this new website and let the Web Team know your reactions to it.

Since my tenure as President of the LIS Alumni Group ended in September, this is my last message to you in this capacity. I have enjoyed representing you at various functions. I attended a meeting of the Library School Advisory Council. This group is made up of the heads of all, or most, library organizations in Hawaii who give input to the Library School program. When they learned of the lack of participation at the LIS Alumni Group Executive Board level, a number of those present offered to contact their constituents and encourage more active participation. One suggestion was that we accept friends of LIS as members. Since that meeting I have several emails from those interested in joining LIS Alumni Group as members.

If you visit the new website noted above, you will see that there is no acting Vice President/President Elect. Therefore, I have no replacement. Because of this, I have contacted the President of the University of Hawaii Arts and Sciences Alumni Group. This group would be happy to absorb the LIS Alumni Group and to administer our scholarship funds. Apparently they do this service for a number of departments who come under the aegis of Arts and Sciences, which is the case with LIS. I have passed this information on to Rebecca Knuth, the current faculty chair of LIS. Perhaps you can contact her with your opinions concerning this option for the LIS AG.

Aloha,

Agnes Quigg

Remembering the Flood of 2004

Hamilton Library, LIS program still scarred from 2004 flood

On the night of Saturday, Oct. 30, 2004, heavy rains came down in Manoa. Manoa Stream overflowed its banks, sending a flash flood through the University of Hawai‘i, Manoa campus. Water was carried as far as the parking structure and the athletics facilities. Areas hardest hit include Biomedical Sciences and Hamilton Library. The basement of Hamilton, which housed Government Documents/Map collection, various library departments, and the LIS program, was almost completely destroyed. Fortunately, Hamilton Library was closed due to operational hours. Unfortunately, an intensive weekend, was being held for an LIS class. Everyone safely evacuated. While there was much lost, damaged and destroyed, we are grateful that none of these included any lives.

Web Interface Now Available for lisalumni-l

University of Hawaii at Manoa has changed the software that runs our list. While I am still working on making more features available and fine-tuning some settings, all current lisalumni-l subscribers can utilize the web interface as well as the traditional command mode sent through email to change their subscription options (digest mode, updating email address, ... etc.).

The Web interface URL is https://listserv.hawaii.edu/cgi-bin/wa?REPORT&z=3. If you want to continue to send list commands, the email address is listserv@hawaii.edu.

If you have never used the web interface on any UH discussion list recently, you will need to register with the email address you use to subscribe to lisalumni-l and create your own password. If you have any questions or want to be added to this low traffic discussion list, feel free to contact me at lisalumni-l-request@hawaii.edu.

More information as well as all the relevant links will be listed at the Alumni Group website, here: http://www.hawaii.edu/slis/organizations/alumni_list.html.

LIS Alumni Group Website

Many thanks to the LIS Web Team, Cora Eggerman, and Joseph Yue, who worked hard to restore the LIS Alumni Group website after Hypatia was destroyed in the October 2004 flood. We also extend a mahalo to Sunyeen Pai, who has offered to help maintain the website, which is now located at this address: http://www.hawaii.edu/slis/organizations/alumni.html.

LIS Alumni Group Vacancies

The Executive Board encourages all alumni to consider contributing to the organization by volunteering to fill one of the vacant positions listed below. Hawai’i residency is not required, as a great deal of the communication transpires by e-mail. Available positions include: President, Vice-President, LIS Liaison, and Continuing Education Chair. If you’re interested, please contact either of the existing officers or committee members listed at the back of this newsletter.

1967

From Daphne Gillespie Selbert: After three years as Campus Librarian on the Abu Dhabi Campus of Zayed University in the United Arab Emirates, I returned to the U.S. in December 2004. In March of this year I accepted a position as Head of Technical Services at the Illinois State Library in Springfield, Illinois.

1968

From Terry Walton: Retired in 2000, after 32 years almost equally divided between academic and public libraries. Highlights included stints at the University of Petroleum & Minerals, Saudi Arabia (Technical Services); New York Public Library (Performing Arts Reference); Hunter College, CUNY (Technical Services & Reference); Old Dominion University (Associate Dean for Technical Services & Automation); and Lee County Library System in Florida (Technical Services/Reference Services).

In retirement, both my wife and I are compulsive travelers – big time. Very much in need of a "travelers anonymous" program, if someone happens to know of one. Best Wishes, Terry

1970

Peter Briscoe is an Associate University Librarian Emeritus at the University of California, Riverside.

1982

From Linda M. Victor: Aloha! After serving the DOE for 25 years as a school librarian (1964-1965 Mo’ili Elementary, 1965-1990 Makaha Elementary), I ventured into school administration. I served at Ma’ili Elementary for three years then as Principal from 1993 to 2004. I am now retired and enjoying a relaxed schedule with my husband who is also retired. There is also time to read and continue being connected to books and students and teachers, membership in Alpha Delta Kappa sorority, the local community and travel.

1990

1992

Ruth Moon is employed as a librarian at College of the Redwoods in Eureka, CA.

1995

From Lorraine Perry: I have been working as a substitute for the state public library on Maui. I also was the volunteer part-time librarian at the Katz Jewish Library of Maui, which was recently moved as a separate collection to Kihei Public Library. This allows for greater accessibility to the collection and saved the costs entailed with renting a separate facility.

2002

Donna Sviantek is working as a librarian in Mannheim, Germany.

unknown

From Cindy Turse: Aloha, We are finally returning from the cold northeast. I’m completing a short career here as one of two LMSs in a very large middle school (1450+) and looking forward to locating employment on Oahu. We can’t wait to get back “home”. See you this summer (2005)!
Best wishes, Cindy

Congratulations to Dr. Brian Richardson (2003), a librarian at Windward Community College who recently published Longitude and Empire: How Captain Cook’s Voyages Changed the World. (More information: http://www.hawaii.edu/ur/newsatuh/2005/0606/publications.htm)
In Memoriam

Billiana “Billi” Bening died at her home in Los Gatos, CA in February 2005 after a 2-year battle with kidney cancer. She received both her bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Hawaii. She worked as a public librarian in San Jose and as a law librarian at the University of California-Davis. Bening was passionate about children's theater and her work as a librarian. Her sister-in-law, Annette Bening, dedicated her recent Golden Globe Award to her.

Gerald Victor Bohnet (1995) died September 19, 2005. He was born in Alberta, Canada and taught in several high schools there before moving with his family to Laie, HI, where he taught at BYU until his retirement three years ago.

Priscilla G. Harpham (1970) died September 4, 2005 in Honolulu. She worked in the Janesville Public Library and later attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where she graduated with a degree in library science. She returned to school to get her master's degree in library science in 1970 at UH Manoa. In 1944, Harpham took a job at Sinclair Library and later worked as a librarian at the St. Francis Hospital School of Nursing, Vice-Principal at St. Francis School, and Principal at Star of the Sea High School.

Pamela Ann Yoshiko Shigezawa (1991), a Kapiolani Medical Center librarian, died in the Queen's Medical Center on September 19, 2005.

Geraldine “Gerry” Smith (1969) died April 19, 2004 in Kennesaw, Georgia, where she had resided since 2001. She served as a librarian with the federal government for all of her career in Saigon, Vietnam, Fort Derens, MA, Giessen, Germany, and Fort Wainwright, AK up until 2000. She loved to travel, ski, and hike. She retained her wonderful sense of humor through her struggle with Alzheimer’s and is missed by her many friends. ~Contributed by Pam Hays, her friend since library school.

LIS Faculty News

Dr. Violet Harada was promoted to full Professor. She recently published Inquiry Learning Through Librarian-Teacher Partnerships, co-authored with Joan Yoshina.

The American Society for Information Science and Technology’s SIG USE (ASIST Special Interest Group - Information Needs, Seeking and Use) awarded Dr. Diane Nahl with its inaugural Meritorious Information Behavior Conference Papers for her paper, Affective and cognitive information behavior: Interaction effects in Internet use.

Alumni Dinner

LIS alumni, students, former and current faculty, and staff gathered at the Outrigger Canoe Club in February for a special dinner to kick off a year-long celebration of the 40th anniversary of the LIS program and to honor Dr. Sarah Vann.

Lynn Davis, an adjunct professor and Head of Preservation at Hamilton Library, was given the 2005 Sarah K. Vann Service Award by ALA’s Student Chapter. Each year it presents the award, which is named after UHM LIS Emeritus Professor Sarah Vann, an international leader in intellectual freedom and comparative librarianship, to a professional that has provided outstanding service to the Hawai‘i library community. Davis was recognized for her leadership role in the aftermath of the Hamilton Flood of 2004.
