Looking Back to Move Forward

Friday, October 18, 2013
Hawai’i International Imin Center, Keoni Auditorium
8:00 am – 4:00 pm

TEDxMānoa Speakers & Talks

Malia Akutagawa, Wm. S. Richardson School of Law
Return of the Konohiki: Kuleana (Rights and Responsibility) in Practice

Kālepa Baybayan, Associate Director, ‘Imiloa Astronomy Center
He Lani Ko Luna, A Sky Above: When You Leave the Comfort of Shore, You Discover the Stars

Snowbird Bento, Ka Pa Hula o ka Lei Lehua
HULA: A Practice in Resource Management

Kamuela Enos, MA’O Organic Farms
Working collectively to restore ancestral abundance

Noelani Goodyear Kaopua, Political Science
The Enduring Power of Aloha Aina: Education and the Futures in our Past

Marques Marzan, Cultural Collections, Bishop Museum
That which binds us together

Alapaki Nahale-a, Laupahoehoe Community Public Charter School
Honoring Native Intelligence

Jamaica Osorio, Slam Poet
Poetry as Translation

Purchase tickets at Native Books in Ward Warehouse, 1050 Ala Moana Blvd., Suite 1000, Phone (808) 596-8885
General Admission $25/  Student Admission $20/ (with valid ID)
General tickets available at tedxmanoa2013.eventbrite.com

Funded in part by an ‘Ahahui Grant from the Office of Hawaiian Affairs and a grant from Kamehameha Schools