UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII
NOTICE TO PROVIDERS OF PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

The University of Hawaii ("University") is seeking qualified professional firms to provide services in the areas of professional services listed below for the fiscal year commencing July 1, 2017. Projects will include repair and maintenance projects, capital improvement program projects, and various types of planning projects located at all University campuses statewide, University-owned properties, extension sites, facilities for research, public service, and other institutional programs.

The selection of firms for projects initiated by the University shall be made from the University's List of Qualified Professionals. The list will be established by responses to this request for qualifications.

Professionals interested in being considered for selection must express their interest by electronically filing their current statement of qualifications at www.hawaii.edu/oci. There is no deadline for the filing of qualifications. The University conducts continuous recruitment for the aforementioned professional services.

Building Information Modeling (BIM) Technology. BIM is a 3D, model-based process that digitally represents the physical and functional characteristics of a facility. BIM is a shared knowledge resource for information about a facility forming a reliable basis for decisions during its life-cycle by providing project teams with the insight and tools to more efficiently plan, design, construct, and manage buildings and infrastructure. The University encourages, and may require, the use of 3D modeling technology software solutions in order to streamline projects by improving and reducing overall project timeline and cost. Use of such technology will require adequate and acceptable conversion capabilities to current University software.

Subject to legislative budget appropriation and allotment of funds by the Governor, the University may procure consultant services in the areas listed below:
