University of Hawai‘i at Hilo
Nowelo Street On-Campus Student Housing

April 26, 2005

Please be informed that the University of Hawai‘i at Hilo is suspending the RFQ/P process to select a developer for the development of student housing on its Nowelo Street site.

The postponement is necessary due to uncertainties in the delivery of student housing in conjunction with the China-US Center project being developed by GEO International on a site adjacent to the University. Until the plans and schedule for this housing are better defined, it is uncertain that sufficient demand exists to support both projects. We anticipate that a decision to proceed with the Nowelo Street developer selection process can be made within three to four months.
