New Degrees and Certificates for Fall 2013

- Associate in Science in Natural Science: Biological Science Degree
- Associate in Science in Natural Science: Physical Science Degree
- Homeland Security Certificate of Completion (AJ)
- Criminal Justice Addictions Professional Certificate of Completion (AJ)
- Prevention Specialist Certificate of Competence (SUBS)

Major Curriculum Changes

- All CTE program General Education requirements for AAS degrees are at the 100 level or higher. A technical Math at the 100 level is being developed for CTE students. Programs affected (Business Education Division Majors, Construction Department Majors, Hospitality Division Majors and Transportation Division Majors).
- The HawCC Academic Senate just adopted a revised version of the General Education Designation process at its most recent Senate meeting. The ad hoc GEC (General Education Committee) expect to receive proposals for GE designation starting next week.

Faculty Advising

- Student Affairs continues to partner with Instruction in providing advising services to students and training for faculty advisors. Instructional Faculty Advisors are responsible to advise continuing students in good academic standing during the academic year. This transition is still a work in progress.
