UNIVERSITY OF HAWAI‘I – WEST O‘AHU

FACULTY HANDBOOK

The University of Hawai‘i System is committed to the policy and practice of affirmative action and equal opportunity in education and employment for all qualified persons regardless of race, sex, age, color, religion, national origin, disability or veteran status.

FOREWORD

The Faculty Handbook is designed primarily for faculty members teaching at the West O‘ahu campus of the University of Hawai‘i. Contained herein is information concerning University regulations and procedures considered to be of particular interest to faculty on the West O‘ahu campus. Manuals pertaining to faculty on the other University Campuses are issued separately.

Faculty members and staff are urged to examine regularly the minutes of the Faculty Senate. Actions by this body may modify the content of this Handbook.

The Faculty Handbook has been edited in the Office of the Chancellor, in cooperation with the Chair of the Faculty Senate and the UH-WO Administrative Council. Members of the faculty are invited to make suggestions and recommendations for the improvement of future editions of the Handbook.

Welcome to Hawai‘i Community College

This booklet is provided as reference to answer questions you may have as a member of the College family. It will acquaint you with the people and places that will play an important role in your career at Hawai‘i Community College (HawCC).

HawCC is a relatively small campus with highly dedicated, hard working, and friendly staff. If you have any questions or need assistance, simply ask.

Mission
Hawai‘i Community College promotes student learning by embracing our unique Hawai‘i Island culture and inspiring growth in the spirit of E ‘Imi Pono. Aligned with the UH Community Colleges system’s mission, we are committed to serving all segments of our Hawai‘i island community.

Vision
To promote student learning, Hawai‘i Community College will emphasize the knowledge, skills and experience necessary for students to pursue academic achievement and workforce opportunities. As lifelong learners, the students will become productive and engaged citizens capable of meeting the complex challenges of a global community.

Imperatives
Dedicated to student learning, Hawai‘i Community College is committed to the following imperatives:

Community Development
The College will provide students with opportunities to serve their community.

Workforce Development
The College will teach the skills needed to succeed in the workforce.

Cultural Competency
The College will respect and learn from all its students.

Environment
The College will build an awareness, appreciation, and sense of personal responsibility for the natural, social, and economic environments.

Hawaiian Culture and Values
