General Education Learning Outcomes
for
Hawaiian, Asian & Pacific Issues

Learning Outcomes
1. Students will demonstrate knowledge of Native Hawaiian issues, as they relate to the histories, cultures, beliefs, arts, social, political, economic, and/or technological processes of these regions.
2. Students will demonstrate knowledge of the intersection of Native Hawaiian issues with Asian and/or Pacific Islands issues.
3. Students will demonstrate knowledge based upon the cultural perspectives, values, and world views of the indigenous peoples of Hawai‘i, the Pacific, and/or Asia.
4. Students will demonstrate knowledge of at least one crucial topic, such as the histories, cultures, beliefs, arts, social, political, economic, or technological processes of these regions.
5. Students will demonstrate ability to critically analyze issues related to the intersection of Native Hawaiian with Asian and/or Pacific Islands issues.

Catalog language
Demonstrate knowledge of Native Hawaiian issues and their intersection with Asian and/or Pacific Islands issues. This knowledge should be based upon the cultural perspectives, values, and world views of the indigenous peoples of Hawai‘i, the Pacific, and/or Asia. Students will demonstrate knowledge of at least one crucial topic, such as the histories, cultures, beliefs, arts, social, political, economic, or technological processes of these regions, along with critical analysis of the topic.