Dr. Lawrence Abele
Director and Provost Emeritus, Florida State University

January 31, 2013

9:00 to 10:15
Retention Implications in Higher Education (HH309)
Deans, Committee on Enrollment Planning, MIRO, STAR

This session will focus on using institutional data to enhance campus wide planning and leadership related to retention and graduation issues.

10:30 - 11:45
Applying Retention Strategies to Exploratory Students (HH309)
Council of Academic Advisers, First Year Programs, Sophomore Experience Committee, CEP Subcommittee #3 and #4, Manoa Advising Center, and Transfer Advising Center

The second session will focus on working with traditional freshmen exploratory students, and other students who do not fit the traditional profile of an undecided student. i.e. transfer students, students who change their major, adult learners and returning students.

12:00 - 1:15 Lunch:
VCAA, AVCUE, VCS

1:30 - 2:45
Recruiting Best Practices Retention Strategies (HH309)
Admissions, Honors, Pre-Health and Pre-Law, Financial Aid

Session three will focus on recruitment strategies and their impact on retention and graduation.

3:00 - 4:15
Specific Strategies and Recommendations (HH309)
VCAA, VCS, AVCUE, FYP, MIRO, STAR

Final session will focus on developing specific recommendations to address student success at UHM.