§20-1.1-16 Initiation of rulemaking hearing. (a) The board may at any time initiate proceedings to adopt, amend, or repeal any rule of the university. (b) Any interested person, organization, or agency may petition the board for the adoption, amendment, or repeal of any rule of the university, as defined in this chapter. [Eff MAR 1 8 2018] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 91-6, 304A-104, 305A-105) (Imp: HRS §§91-2, 91-3, 91-6, 304A-104, 304A-105)

§20-1.1-17 Contents of petition. Petitions for rulemaking shall conform to the requirements of section 20-1.1-11. Each petition for rulemaking shall:

1.1-11
§20-1.1-17

(1) Set forth the text of any proposed rule or amendment desired or shall specify the rule the repeal of which is desired;

(2) State concisely the nature of the petitioner's interest in the subject matter and the reasons for seeking the adoption, amendment, or repeal of the rule; and

(3) Include any facts, views, arguments, and data deemed relevant by petitioner.

The board may also require the petitioner to serve other persons, organizations, or agencies known to be interested in the proposed rulemaking. No request for the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule which does not conform to the requirements in this section will be considered by the board. [Eff MAR 1 8 2018] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 91-6, 304A-104, 305A-105) (Imp: HRS §§91-2, 91-3, 91-6, 304A-104, 304A-105)

§20-1.1-18 Disposition of petition. The board shall, within thirty days following the filing of a petition, either deny the petition in writing or initiate public rulemaking procedures. No public hearing, oral argument or other form of proceeding will be held directly on any petition, but if the board determines that the petition discloses sufficient reasons in support of the relief requested to justify the institution of public rulemaking proceedings, the procedures to be followed will be as set forth in section 91-3, HRS, and this subchapter. Where the board determines that the petition does not disclose sufficient reasons to justify the institution of public rulemaking procedures, or where the petition does not concern a rule, the board shall deny the petition and the petitioner will be so notified together with the grounds for the denial. This section shall not operate to prevent the board, on its own motion, from acting on any matter disclosed in any petition. [Eff MAR 1 8 2018] (Auth: HRS §§91-2,

The presiding officer shall confine the testimony to the questions before the hearing and is empowered to confine the testimony so as to keep order. Every person testifying may be subject to questioning by the presiding officer or any other representative of the board, but questioning by private persons shall not be permitted unless the presiding officer expressly permits it.

(f) Submission of evidence. All interested persons, organizations, or agencies may also file with the board within the time period specified in the notice of proposed rulemaking a written protest or other comments or recommendations in support of or in opposition to the proposed rulemaking. The period of filing may be extended by the presiding officer for good cause.

(g) Transcript of the testimony. Unless otherwise specifically ordered by the board or the presiding officer, testimony given at the hearing need not be reported verbatim. All supporting written statements and data offered in evidence at the hearing, and which are deemed by the presiding officer to be authentic and relevant, shall be received in evidence and made a part of the record. 1. State clearly and concisely the controversy or uncertainty;
2. Cite the statutory authority involved;
3. Include a complete statement of the facts and the reasons or grounds prompting the petition, together with full disclosure of petitioner's interest; and

§20-1.1-24 Request for hearing. Although in the usual course of disposition of a petition for a declaratory ruling no formal hearing will be granted to the petitioner or to a party in interest, the board may at its discretion order such proceeding set for hearing. Any petitioner or party in interest who desires a hearing on a petition for declaratory ruling shall set forth in detail in a request together with supporting affidavits or other written evidence the reasons why the matters alleged in the petition will not permit the fair and expeditious disposition of the petition. In addition, to the extent that the request for hearing is dependent upon factual assertions, the petitioner shall accompany the request with an affidavit establishing the facts. If a hearing is ordered by the board, sections 91-9 through 91-13 HRS, shall govern the proceedings. [Eff MAR 18 2018] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 91-7, 91-8, 304A-104, 304A-105) (Imp: HRS §§91-2, 91-7, 91-8, 304A-104, 304A-105)
