To: University of Hawaiʻi BOR

Some other reasons are that I don’t feel that they should demolish our mountain and they are also taking away privileges for the future generations to see life in the mountain, the luxury of enjoying the mountain, they are damaging our natural resources, and now we are able to access our mountain but when it’s built we might have restrictions on how far we can go into our mountain.

Mahalo,
Leimomi Bautista