There is nothing more precious to the human race than caring for the world we live in. The land, the ocean, all nature is important. There are so many things going on like appeals, how is it that TMT is even allowed to be in construction when all of these things are in violation of the law?

Mary Kok