I would like to add three further references to my testimony - Mahalo.

First is a reference to an article in the current PUNAHOU BULLETIN, I just received; and a movie trailer just released, with a TEDX video worthy to listen to again and again.

MAUNA KEA WOULD SERVE THE WORLD BETTER AS A CULTURAL HERITAGE EDUCATIONAL CENTER; WITH UNLIMITED POSSIBILITIES FOR CAREERS AND RELATED TRADE AND COMMERCE ON ALL THE ISLANDS; WHICH WOULD SERVE THE PURPOSES OF THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAI’I, THE BEST.

INSPIRING PURPOSE
http://www.punahou.edu/bulletin/detail/index.aspx?Issue=f5343e5f-9254-46df-971f-a47600f10ae1&LinkId=3304

CURATING HUMANITY’S HERITAGE
https://www.ted.com/talks/elizabeth_lindsey_curating_humanity_s_heritage

THE FORCE AWAKENS
‘Chewie, we’re home’: New 'Force Awakens' trailer lands
“The force is strong in my family,”

THE PHOENIX ON THE STATE OF HAWAI’I STATE SEAL

The Great Seal of the State of Hawaii was designated officially by Act 272 of the 1959 Territorial Legislature and is based on the territorial seal....The seal of the Territory of Hawaii was the same as the seal of the republic, except that it had "Territory of Hawaii" placed at the top and "1900" (signifying the year that the territorial government officially was organized) within the circle.[1] The 1901 Territorial Legislature authorized the modified republic seal as the Seal of the Territory of Hawaii.[2]

The seal of the Republic of Hawaii had the words "Republic of Hawaii" at the top and "MDCCCXCIV" within the circle. The year 1894 signified the date that the republic was established.[1] The republic seal was designed by Viggo Jacobsen, a Honolulu resident, and itself was derived from the Kingdom of Hawaii's coat of arms used during the reign of King Kamehameha III, King Kalâkaua and Queen Lili'uokalani, which had been designed by the College of Arms in London in 1842 and officially adopted in 1845.[3]

TMT FUTURE - UNIVERSITY OF HAWAI’I AT HILO: THE MANAGEMENT OF MAUNA KEA AND THE MAUNA KEA SCIENCE RESERVE

Toni Auld Yardley <maoliinstitute@gmail.com>  Thu, Apr 16, 2015 at 11:08 AM

To: bor@hawaii.edu

A REMINDER:

HAWAI’I PONO’I.
Hawaii’s own true sons
Be loyal to your chief
Your country’s liege and lord
The chief.

[Quoted text hidden]
TMT FUTURE - UNIVERSITY OF HAWAI‘I AT HILO: THE MANAGEMENT OF MAUNA KEA AND THE MAUNA KEA SCIENCE RESERVE

Toni Auld Yardley <maoliinstitute@gmail.com>
To: bor@hawaii.edu
Thu, Apr 16, 2015 at 11:17 AM

BE THE CAPSTONE - KEYSTONE OF ENVIRONMENTAL LAW FOR HAWAI‘I AND OUR PACIFIC REGION
the central principle or part of a policy, system, etc., on which all else depends.
[Quoted text hidden]
ALWAYS REMEMBER WHO WILLAM S. RICHARDSON WAS AND STOOD FOR.

The Hui Aloha 'Aina petition contains 21,269 signatures (whereabouts of the 17,000-signature Hui Kulai'aina petition remain unknown). Pages equalling approximately half the petition were displayed in Hawai'i in 1998 at Bishop Museum and other venues around the state. Silva and Nalani Minton published a loose-bound version of the petition the same year. For many, knowledge of the petitions lifted a feeling of victimization over the overthrow of the monarchy and increased respect for earlier generations who had brought their voices together to restore a nation. "Everybody's kupuna signed this paper," Silva said, "and they all stood up for their country."

In January 1999, the petition documents were returned to the U.S. Senate (they are officially Senate property). Descendants of the four men who originally delivered the documents to Queen Lili'uokalani - former Hawai'i Supreme Court Justice William Richardson, Moses Kalauokalani, Edwin Auld, Toni Auld Yardley and Kaoi Kaimikaua - participated in the ceremonies.

[Quoted text hidden]