

Report to the 2005 Legislature on University of Hawaii Risk Management Special Fund

Act 186, SLH 2003

November 2004

Act 186, SLH 2003 amended Chapter 304, Hawaii Revised Statutes, by:

- (a) creating the University of Hawaii risk management special fund; and
- (b) providing the board of regents with the authority to approve the indemnification of persons, companies, and government entities, as necessary, to receive research and other funds for educational purposes.

Act 186, SLH 2003 authorized the creation of the University of Hawaii risk management special fund effective July 1, 2003. On July 1, 2003, the University of Hawaii, Office of Risk Management assessed each campus based on a number of factors such as number of students, number of employees, number of automobiles, and square footage of buildings and collected $1,963,870.00. The fund paid out $1,358,112.16 in claim settlements, $286,200.00 in insurance premium to purchase Directors and Officers/Educators Legal Liability/Employment Practices Liability insurance, $57,326.19 for litigation expenses incurred by the Office of the University General Counsel and encumbered $15,000.00 for workers' compensation benefits for non-payroll assessed claimants.
