Our Mission

The people of Hawaii are one ohana. The Hawaii Foodbank provides food so that no one in our family goes hungry. We work to gather food and support from our communities. We then distribute food through charitable agencies to those in need. Our mission is from the heart, and we will fulfill our mission with integrity, humanity and aloha.

Nearly 300 Food Sources

- Food Manufacturers and Growers
  - Receive, inventory, inspect, sort and store perishable and nonperishable foods
- Food Purchases
  - Purchase and distribute over 3.1 million pounds of fresh produce, assorted canned foods and rice
- Food Retailers and Wholesalers
  - Distribute a monthly average of over 1.1 million pounds of food on Oahu and Kauai
- Feeding America
  - Operate according to national standards set by Feeding America, the National Food Bank Network.
- Individual and Corporate Canned Food Drives
  - Inspect and deliver over 3.7 million pounds of fresh produce through the Ohana Produce Plus Program
- Federal Food Commodities
  - Most Needed: Monetary donations, canned meats or tuna, canned meals, canned soups, canned vegetables, canned fruits and rice

Over 200 Member Agencies

Food Pantries
- Feeding Programs
- Homeless Shelters and Soup Kitchens
- Ohana Produce Plus Program
- Feeding Our Future and Food 4 Keiki Backpack Program