Our Mission

The people of Hawaii are one ohana. The Hawaii Foodbank provides food so that no one in our family goes hungry. We work to gather food and support from our communities. We then distribute food through charitable agencies to those in need. Our mission is from the heart, and we will fulfill our mission with integrity, humanity and aloha.

Nearly 300 Food Sources

In our 23,668 square-foot warehouse on Oahu and our 4,750 square-foot warehouse on Kauai we:

- Receive, inventory, inspect, sort and store perishable and nonperishable foods
- Purchase and distribute over 3.1 million pounds of fresh produce, assorted canned foods and rice
- Distribute a monthly average of over 1 million pounds of food on Oahu and Kauai
- Operate according to national standards set by Feeding America, the National Food Bank Network.
- Inspect and deliver nearly 4 million pounds of fresh produce through the Ohana Produce Plus Program
- Distribute over 13 million pounds of food or over 9.4 million meals on Oahu and Kauai
- Most Needed: Monetary donations, canned meats or tuna, canned meals, canned soups, canned vegetables, canned fruits and rice
