

How Your Dollars Help Feed the Hungry

Your monetary donations are an important part of fulfilling our mission. Your dollars are used efficiently to help feed as many people as possible. 95 percent of Foodbank expenses feeds the hungry by distributing food from our warehouse or through direct feeding programs like the Ohana Produce Plus Program. Your dollars help us:

Distribute over 13 million pounds of food from our warehouse annually.

Distribute over 3.9 million pounds of fresh produce and over 3.5 million pounds of assorted foods annually to 21 communities on Oahu through our Ohana Produce Plus Program.

Purchase containers of rice, fresh produce and canned meats, meals, fruits and vegetables.

How Your Dollars Help Feed the Hungry

Charity Navigator

On December 1, 2014, the Hawaii Foodbank received its fifth consecutive 4-star rating from Charity Navigator, the nation's largest independent evaluator of America's nonprofit organizations.

The Foodbank now belongs to the 4 percent of all charities rated that received this distinction. Five consecutive 4-star ratings means the Hawaii Foodbank outperforms most other charities in America. This "exceptional" designation differentiates the Foodbank from its peers and demonstrates to the public it is worthy of their trust.

A full financial profile of the Hawaii Foodbank is available online at www.charitynavigator.org

GuideStar

The Hawaii Foodbank is now a member of GuideStar, a national database that provides businesses, foundations and individual donors with information on nonprofit organizations. GuideStar's mission is to advance transparency, enable users to make better decisions and encourage charitable giving.

95 Percent of Expenses Feeds the Hungry

95 percent of Hawaii Foodbank expenses helps distribute over 13 million pounds of food to 200 member agencies from our warehouse each year. Expenses also support the operation of feeding programs to underserved communities across Oahu and delivering food to keiki at risk of hunger from low-income or homeless families.

