*The UHM Graduate Application for Degree is available online until each semester's deadline date. After this date, students will be required to complete the application in person at the Graduate Records Office, Spalding 352. Students who miss the deadline by more than three weeks will be required to submit a form signed by the graduate chair to indicate that they have your approval for such a late application. Note that your degree processing and diploma may be delayed as a result.

The summer commencement ceremony is no longer offered. Summer graduates are invited to participate in the preceding spring commencement exercises or the following fall commencement exercises, provided they file an application for degree by the respective spring or fall deadline.
