

Chinese Culture Day
Friday, February 27, 2015
8:30 AM – 2:00 PM

Imin International Conference Center at Jefferson Hall
Garden Level Rooms
1777 East-West Road

2015 Year of the Sheep (or Goat or Ram) arrives on February 19. Celebrate your wise, gentle, and compassionate sheep friends who have special sensitivity to art and beauty, and a special fondness for quiet living. The Department of East Asian Languages & Literatures wishes you a very Happy New Year!

On February 27, Chinese Culture Day will take place at the Imin Center. Its sponsors are the:

- Chinese Section of the Department of East Asian Languages & Literatures
- Confucius Institute
- Center for Chinese Studies
- National Foreign Language Resource Center

You're invited to participate in this free entertaining and educational event attended by hundreds of UH and other students, and members of our community. At Chinese Culture Day, you'll experience a taste of China that will leave you yearning for more.
