

Aloha 'Āina Series Workshops

Aloha 'Āina Allies Presentation

Mon, Apr 13

12:00 pm - 1:00 pm

Building 5, Room 202

Katherine Burke will present her research on the qualities of an effective ally and the role allies play in advocating for Native Hawaiian issues. Anyone interested in examining how they can better support the Native Hawaiian Community is encouraged to attend.

Katherine Burke, MPH

Katherine Burke, MPH, is a junior researcher working on substance use and mental health research projects. Burke is a PhD candidate in the Office of Public Health Studies at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa. Burke earned a Bachelor of Arts in Neuroscience & Behavior at Mount Holyoke College, and a Master of Public Health in Social & Behavioral Health Sciences from the Office of Public Health Studies at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa.

Attendees at this events may receive either a Hawaiian Flag sticker or mini flag. Attend five Aloha 'Āina Series Events or Mālama 'Āina Days and receive a full sized Hawaiian flag.
