

The Center for Southeast Asian Studies and the Department of Political Science, University of Hawai`i – Mānoa Present

Alam M. Payind
Professor, Political Science
Director, Middle East Studies Center
The Ohio State University

Lectures

- Afghanistan and Iraq in the Post 9/11 Period: Achievements, Challenges & Failures•
Monday, February 12, 2007: Center for Korean Studies Auditorium, 12 noon
- Islam and Muslims in the 21st Century•
Tuesday, February 13, 2007: Center for Korean Studies Auditorium, 12 noon

Professor Alam Payind was raised in Afghanistan and Pakistan and received all three of his graduate degrees in the United States. Professor Payind specializes in comparative foreign policy, Middle Eastern and South Asian politics, international education and cultural exchange. He has served as Professor of Political Science and Director of the Ohio State University Middle East Studies Center since 1987. Professor Payind has earned several honors at OSU, including the International Outstanding Staff Award for contributions to international study and research. He is currently working on a book titled Major Powers and Muslim Countries: The Dilemma of Understanding Indigenous Dynamics.

These lectures are free and open to the public. For more information, including building access for the disabled, please call 956-2688.