

Attention: Arts and Humanities Students!
Applications are being accepted for spring 2008

THE DANNY KALEIKINI KAHALA HILTON HOTEL SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship was established in 1982 to honor Danny Kaleikini's fifteenth anniversary at the Kahala Hilton Hotel. Originally intended to support students in the Music Department, in 1992 the scholarship was expanded to include students in any discipline in the College of Arts and Humanities at the University of Hawai`i at Manoa. One scholarship of $1,500 will be awarded.

To be eligible for the DANNY KALEIKINI KAHALA HILTON HOTEL scholarship, student must:

be a full-time graduate or undergraduate student CURRENTLY enrolled at UH Manoa with a declared Arts and Humanities major (American Studies, Art, Music, History, Philosophy, Religion, Speech, or Theatre and Dance; be a graduate of a Hawai`i high school; be in good academic standing at UH-Manoa (minimum 2.5 GPA for undergraduate student; 3.5 GPA for graduate student) have talent and potential in an arts and humanities discipline; and have some degree of financial need.

Priority is given to qualified students who belong to groups under-represented at the University of Hawai`i at Manoa and in professional fields in Arts and Humanities. Thus, preference would go to students whose ethnic background is African American, Filipino, Hawaiian, Hispanic, Native American, Pacific Islander, or South East Asian. If no student from an under-represented group qualifies, then this scholarship may be awarded to the best qualified student in need of financial assistance.

To apply, submit 4 complete and collated application packets. Each application packet must contain the following (in order):

Cover sheet which lists your name, current address, permanent address, telephone number, email address, social security number, Hawai`i high school attended, college major, and class standing (sophomore, junior, senior, or grad student).

Letter of recommendation from college professor (original letter + 3 copies)

Official current UH transcript (original transcript + 3 copies)

Statement of financial need (one page maximum)

Personal Statement (one typed page maximum)

Submit 4 copies of completed applications by November 19, 2007 at 4 P.M.

to:

THE DANNY KALEIKINI KAHALA HILTON HOTEL SCHOLARSHIP
2500 Campus Rd, Hawaii 302
Honolulu, Hawai`i 96822

Hard copies of these scholarship guidelines are available at Hawaii Hall 302.