Three students reported an unprovoked attack and assault by five unknown suspects while walking through Kanewai Park on Dole Street during the early morning hours of Sunday, January 16.

After the incident, one of the victims reported a missing wallet. The three students were unable to provide a description of the suspects to Campus Security and HPD.

Campus Security strongly recommends that students avoid walking through or going to Kanewai Park after dark.

If you have information about this incident, please call Campus Security at 956-6911 or HPD at 911.

At 12:09 a.m. on Saturday, December 4, a female graduate student reported being forcibly robbed of her backpack in the parking lot of the Newman Center near East-West Road.

She said she was approached by a man who asked for the time and then grabbed the strap of her backpack and wrested it away from her. He was last seen running towards Moore Hall.

HPD responded and is investigating. The description of the suspect is as follows:

African-American in his early 20's;
6 feet, 140 pounds with black hair;
White short-sleeve T-shirt, gray pants, and running shoes.

If you have any information on this case, please call HPD at 911 or Campus Security at 956-6911.

A student living in Hale Wainani on the UH Manoa campus reported today that she had been sexually assaulted during the night in her residence hall room by a man that she initially met on the Internet.

The suspect has been identified and is believed NOT to be a UH Manoa student.

The Honolulu Police Department is investigating and following up on leads.

October 25, 2010

A female student reported to HPD and Campus Security that she had been the victim of a sexual assault at Hale Noelani in the early morning hours of Sunday, October 24.

The suspect is described as a male in his early 20s, about 5'8" tall, 180 lbs., muscular build, black hair in a crew cut, brown complexion with black eyes. He was wearing a white T-shirt, shorts and slippers.

At this time, HPD has developed a suspect but has not yet made an arrest. Additionally, we have reason to believe that the suspect is a non-student.

If you have information about this incident, or if you see someone matching the above description, please contact HPD at 911 or Campus Security at 956-6911.

Campus Security has increased monitoring of the Zone 22 Parking Structure on Dole Street near the Hawai'i inuiakea School of Hawaiian Knowledge after two recent thefts of vehicles parked there.

Both pickup trucks were stolen during the night or early morning.

May 10, 2010

Just after midnight, May 9, a female student reported being accosted by a stranger on the sidewalk fronting Dole Street near the Law School. A passerby intervened and enabled the victim to flee.

Description of the suspect:

Male, race unknown

Age: mid 20s

Height: 5'10"

Weight: 220 lbs

Build: Muscular

Hair: Short and Brown

Facial Hair: Scruffy short beard

Wearing black short-sleeved t-shirt, with a "high light" logo on the front, jeans pants.

Anyone having any knowledge of this incident please call Campus Security at 956-6911 or HPD at 911. Campus Security is also attempting to locate the "good Samaritan" who assisted the victim.

April 19, 2010

This is a general safety warning about a group of males reportedly assaulting or harassing people late at night or early in the morning, on or near campus. The incidents appear to be random and without cause.

Use a "buddy system" around campus at night. If you see a group of males (usually 4-7 individuals) ranging in age from late teens to mid-20s loitering in the area, avoid approaching them.

If you do see such a group, possibly a gang, on or very near campus acting suspiciously, please call Campus Security at 956-6911, or HPD at 911.

March 30, 2010

There have been several recent burglaries in the Hale Noelani and Hale Wainani apartments. The method of entry into the rooms was through windows that were not securely closed.

The crimes were committed predominantly during the late-night or early-morning hours, often when occupants were asleep in their rooms.

Students living in apartments, residence halls and dorms are urged to close their windows securely, even while they are sleeping and especially when they are not in their rooms.

For more information, call Campus Security at 956-6911.

At about 7:30 p.m. last night, a student reported that she was robbed of her cell phone as she was walking in the Ewa direction on Dole Street near the School of Hawaiian Knowledge.

An unknown female suspect in her 20s approached the female student and asked to borrow the student's cell phone. The female suspect sprayed the student with pepper spray and fled with her phone in an awaiting car.

The female suspect is described as possibly Polynesian in her 20s, 5'2", 140 lbs., with brown complexion, brown eyes, medium straight black hair, and wearing a black long-sleeved hooded sweatshirt.

The male driver suspect is described as possibly Asian in his 20s, slim build, black crew cut, tan complexion, and wearing a cap.

If you see these suspects, call Campus Security at 956-6911 or the Honolulu Police Department at 911.
