

Join Net Impact at the University of Hawaii
as we kick-off the Fall semester!

Date: Thursday, August 27, 2009
Time: 5:15pm ~ 8:30pm
Place: Shidler College room A101
& Courtyard

Featuring:

Guest Speaker Andrea Dean! (5:45pm)
Local non-profits and green entrepreneurs!
Net Impact membership & volunteer opportunities!
Cake, Pupus & Wine generously donated by Whole Foods! (6:45pm)

We are honored to once again host Andrea Dean, a Green Business Coach, Consultant, and Trainer and Shidler MBA Alum. Andrea was one of 80 women leaders chosen for the WomenRule! Training featured in the November issue of O, The Oprah Magazine, and recently appeared in Hawaii Business. Visit her website at www.andreadean.com.

Please join your friends, colleagues, and faculty to help launch the Fall semester, learn more about socially responsible and sustainable business, and discover ways you can make your own impact.

Special thanks to:

Net Impact is a global organization of over 10,000 members, making it one of the most influential networks of students and professionals in existence today. The mission of the local chapter is to grow and support a community of leaders focused on making a positive environmental, social, and economic impact through the power of sustainable business.
