Tomatoes, 55 Tons of Head Cabbage Left Unharvested

Most of the estimated 55 tons of mature head cabbage was left unharvested in Waimanalo, Honolulu, during July and August. The condition is caused by the plowing under of tomatoes, and other crops, in various farming areas in the Territory.

Willy Crozier, who arrived from Maui last week, said that farmers in the Kula area are giving up and plowing under tomatoes because they are not high enough to meet harvest expenses.

Canneries and Freezing Plants

This is a problem that the Crozier Division of the ILWU suggested and Crozier said that the preserving of island crops to compete with mainland plants would be a good move.

In order to do this, he explained, canning and freezing plants should be set up to preserve all farm products not readily consumed.

According to the July Agricultural Outlook, monthly publication of the University of Hawaii, in late May and June, the vegetable farm was "foulant the market for...ce...cabbage, cucumbers, snack beans, and tomatoes, flooded".

In the case of tomatoes, for instance, rubber quickly dropped the market, thus reducing prices.

Aid to Farmers

Island farmers underestimated their land crops, thus wholesale losses in mainland markets, according to N. R. Roberts, assistant state agronomist for the agricultural experiment station.

Several means are available to help the farmer plan his activities to avoid this production-miscounting problem," Mr. Roberts said.

Up-to-Date Information Needed

One of these is the drawing of (more on page 7)

Six Unions Act to Warn Honolulu Bars Against Continuing Racist Policies

Six of the Territory's most powerful unions last week warned against the concerted opposition. The unions referred to the International Longshoremen's & Warehousemen's Union locals, including sugar, cane sugar, and the Hawaiian Newspaper Workers Union, the Marine Cooks and Stewards, and the U.S. Public Workers of America.

The Marine Cooks and Stewards press release, which went to six of the bars, named them as the Brown Derby, Tony Cota's, the Cocktail Bar, Trade Winds, Pele's Palace, and Wimpy's Bar and John Wayne. Part of the release said: "THERE IS NO END TO THIS.

"We reserve the right to withdraw our notice if the banks and bars fail to meet us.

"Our union has always taken a strong position on the matter of race relations within our own ranks and other minority groups. We are very much interested in any minority groups.

"Our organization is prepared to do what we must do to keep this movement to create a better working environment for all workers.

"We are committed to our cause and will continue to support our members to keep the pressure on the owners.

"Our members are prepared to take action if necessary."

(more on page 6)

RAMPANT HONEYSUCKLE AWAITS MRS. DILLINGHAM

by STAFF WRITER

The honey suckle vines around the Kalakaua Ave. fountain go but not before Mrs. W. F. Dillingham returns from Europe, to give the word.

The hedges of blackberries taken by the Parks Board Commission a couple of months ago, falling (more on the honey suckle vines) around the grounds.

The vines were MRS. Dillingham's idea. So was the pool, for that matter. The pool in the neighborhood of $7,000, and according to Victor S. Anderson, director of the planning division of the Parks Board, it was supposed to function "like the human brain."

Anderson, who told the RECORD about the fountain in March 1955, has since resigned to travel abroad himself. He thought the fountain was a big project, but there are others who differ with him.

One of these, an engineer, said, "He's a good idea, but it's going to cost more than we thought." (more on page 7)

Pioneer Mill Dangles Supervision To Soften Militant Trade Unionsists

Pioneer Mill has been discussing its plans to offer a trial job to the Railroad Company's unionists, who have been working without a contract for the past two years.

"We have been working without a contract for the past two years, but we have not been able to find a suitable candidate."

(more on page 6)

Hawaii Meat Co. Men Agree Method Is Dirty

By EDWARD ROBRETT

Hawaii Meat Co. men manipulate meat for Honolulu's stores in the same dirty, disorganized manner that they do in Europe, looking perhaps, for the case, in the union trucks, now under management of the Meat Wholesalers Association. (more on page 7)
“Policy of Negotiations... Not by a Policy of Arms”

“Our diplomacy and our defense cannot be sound if based on the debacles of preventive war, of military domination or of new superdirectives,” declared the statement of principles adopted by the American People’s Congress of Arms. We hope that the increasing realization of the futility of our collective defense agreements will put an end to such policies.

THE DECLARATION of principles said also: “Peace can be realized only by a policy of negotiations and not by a policy of arms. We shall abandon the idea that the presence of the armament of different social systems is essential to peace.”

Of the 400 delegates from all parts of the United States, the 300 represented labor. The peace conference called on President Truman and Congress to meet the national emergency under which we have been frozen, void the 321st paragraph of our collective defense agreements, and declare our total opposition to the war.

“WE HAIL the transfer of international differences to the conference table where labor can do as trade unionists we are in full accord with a policy of negotiation because we know the wisdom of ‘talking it over.’”

One of the highlights of the mass rally which opened the peace conference June 29 was a speech by Rev. William G. Bell, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Honolulu. He read a message from himself and the peace conference to the American labor leaders. The message was received by the American labor leaders who said: “IT IS ENCOURAGING to labor to see such a great peace conference as yours being held, and if all the American people who want peace will only speak up and join their efforts together, peace can be won. In behalf of 60,000 members of Local 900, you have our best wishes for a successful conference in the cause of peace.”

“Thus, the large local of the UAW, whose top international leadership has been for the cold-war program, called for peace at the Chicago conference.

Malaya: Forcible Evacuation of Chinese Squatters

While the British government was having difficulties with the Malayan Chinese community, the Malayan Chinese, in the Far East who produce rubber, were intensifying their struggle for economic and political independence.

TAKING A DIM view of British failures in Malaya to suppress the liberation-anti-British movement, the New Statesman and Nation commented: “If the Socialist government in London is to be recorded in Malaya as sincere in its professed, it must surely pay some attention to the Singapore Labor Daily’s demands for the nationalization of the main industries, including tin, rubber, and the tin-mining districts of a bare town.”

Criticizing London’s policy in Malaya, where the British are making use in their attempt to crush native independence movements, is costing 120 million a year. The CONFLICT is such that half of the child population in Malaya between 12 is stranded in education because of a lack of school facilities.

With 20 million spent to buy Tin Malaya, it is unconvincing to tell the people that “famine” is the obstacle in the way of education.

In order to silence discontent and stamp out dissenting groups, the British authorities are making more and more people behind barbed wire.

Malaya, with millions of Chinese residents, has about 200,000 Chinese squatters who are landless peasants who have settled on Crown land, living in bare subsistence. The Chinese have supported the liberation movement and many have joined the guerrilla forces.

To cut off contact between these people and the guerrillas, the British are now moving people to barbed wire compounds in the fruitless forcible evacuation in Malaya which has been undertaken by them. In the southern suburb of Kuah Lumur, capital of Malaya, the British are uprooting 160 families a day to their makeshift compounds.

The CHARGE against these settlers is the usual race-religion-environmental with the Chinese squatters and aiding the Malayan liberation army.

The British campaign in Malaya has not had the cooperation of the indigenous Chinese and the British, as the New Statesman and Nation said. The Japanese, during their period of occupation, tried to organize and called for Malayan squatters and the Chinese.

The Chijoh Lee (Self-Protection Corps) and the Kinta Hospital (Labor Service Corps) with all its extra dungeons, extra dungeons and abuses administered by “headmen” are still vital in Malaysian peoples’ minds.

The NEW STATESMAN and Nation observed that the Malayan people might be experiencing a new sense of nationalism and are unfavorably impressed by the repeated declarations of the new MP’s, that because of the “Malayan Lobby,” that Britain will never lose Malaya.

Similarly, resentment is caused by the use of any other citizen rising to a higher rank than that of captain in the Malayan Regiment, the senior administration. And it added: “As it is, except for a few privileged persons in the financial or administrative sphere, the Chinese find no political freedom, no freedom to lose... And in spite of the suppression of Malaya, the Chinese is beginning to suspect that the government of the United States is giving a better deal in the matters of China than they ever enjoyed...”

Cuban Unionists Arrested

For Visiting USSR

European trade unionists, educators and professional people have been visiting the Soviet Union and Eastern European countries, and Americans also have traveled in these countries during recent years. Here observations do not pass in U.S. papers, although British publications do give eye-witness accounts of what is going on in the USSR and the Soviet Union.

RECENTLY, several members of a Cuban trade union delegation returned from their trip to Europe, which included a visit to the Soviet Union. Because they had gone to Russia, they were arrested at Havana airport on their return.

These 13-member delegation arrested on charges of “working at the service of the Russian government” included Reinaldo Pando, tobacco worker; Miguel Galán, sugar worker, and Dr. Nicasio Muñoz, a physiologist who has been prominent in the trade union movements.

PEOPLE ARE going back and forth between Washington and Eastern Europe, and very frequently, the difficulty of entering Eastern Europe is posed by Western governments which do not issue passports to their citizens who desire to travel. These fears are well-founded.

British citizens have traveled more freely and recently seven Quakers, members of the Peace Fellowship, were invited to visit the Soviet Union for two weeks. Those making the help to the Soviet Union include Kathleen Lyne, chemist, and the associate professor of the University of London; Paul N. Landau, managing director at the big chocolate firm in America; Sue Wickersham Bailey and Chairman B. Leslie Metcalfe of the Quakers’ East-West Relations Committee; the Foreign Minister of the Chasey Guardian, and R. Mildred Creak.

THE SOCIETY OF FRIENDS said the major purpose of the visit is to help foster cooperation between the peoples of the USSR and Great Britain and to help strengthen prospects of world peace through East-West understanding.

Said the Quakers: “The Quakers are not political people. We have no Communists in our ranks, either open or concealed. The only idea behind our visit is that we want to promote peace, stave off the imminently possible evil of a third world war...” It is not inappropriate that since our purpose in going to the summiteers, our hosts should be the Soviet Peace Committee.”

Announcement of the proposed visit was widely reported in the British press. The four-million-circulation Daily Mirror said: “The Quaker delegation certainly do no harm. It may even considerably do some good. For millions of Britons, too, have a desire to learn about understanding; to live in peace... This is the wish not only of the seven Quakers but of our entire nation.”

McGrath Wants Stronger Taft-Hartley Law

Attorney General J. Howard McGrath has written House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D., Tex.) and chairman James E. Murray addressing his amendment to the Taft-Hartley law so former Communists can be sent to jail for signing non-Communist affidavits.

IN IDENTICAL LETTERS enacting a draft of the proposed change, McGrath asked for a change to the Taft-Hartley law so former Communists can be sent to jail for signing non-Communist affidavits.

AS WORDED in the proposed amendment, the affidavit would swear: “I had for the preceding 12-month period I had not been a member of the Communist party or affiliated with such party and as not been in any other group or organization that believes in or teaches the overthrow of any government by force or by any illegal or unconstitutional methods.”

To receive some unsolicited help, the Taft-Hartley Committee must sign the affidavit. McGrath wrote the congressmen that the Taft-Hartley Committee must sign the affidavit. McGrath wrote the congressmen that the Taft-Hartley Committee must sign the affidavit. McGrath wrote the congressmen that the Taft-Hartley Committee must sign the affidavit. McGrath wrote the congressmen that the Taft-Hartley Committee must sign the affidavit. McGrath wrote the congressmen that the Taft-Hartley Committee must sign the affidavit. McGrath wrote the congressmen that the Taft-Hartley Committee must sign the affidavit. McGrath wrote the congressmen that the Taft-Hartley Committee must sign the affidavit. McGrath wrote the congressmen that the Taft-Hartley Committee must sign the affidavit. McGrath wrote the congressmen that the Taft-Hartley Committee must sign the affidavit.

Subscription Blank

Please enter my subscription to the HONOLULU RECORD
(Fearless and Independent)

$11 per year, Honolulu, T. H.

One Year (Oahu).............$1.00
6 Months (Oahu)..............$0.50
Year (Oahu)...............$2.50
Year (Oahu, Islands).......$2.00
6 Months (Other Islands)....$1.00
6 Months (Other Islands)...$0.50

NAME

ADDRESS

If you are already a subscriber, why not fill this out and send it in for a renewal of the HONOLULU RECORD, too!

HCRC Holds “Go For broke” Luau

A “Go For broke” luau has to be held Saturday night at the home of Steve and Evelyn Murin was announced by the American Federation of Civilians to be held at the annual meeting of the group.

He cited restrictions on the Indians’ rights to spend their own money and time, to make and sell crafts on council. This ban, he said, is intended to prevent them from entertainment and dancing “into the wrong hands.” Donations of $1.50 per person are expected.

The address of the Murins is 1527F, Kailua Beach.
Akau In As Demo Secy. As Walkout Faction Returns

In a hectic election which saw 15 eligible voters cast 42 votes, two of the International Committee of the Philippines Nationalism for the People nominated Thursday evening John Akau as secretary to their central executive. Mrs. Jean King, the incumbent.

Another vote, taken nearly four hours after the meeting came to order to determine whether or not the election should be recognized, was divided 16-14 in favor of the original voters having departed.

The results of the same were announced by John Akau, saying that he had been elected secretary of the organization for the People, and that a meeting was to be held later in the week.

Chairman Jack Burns ruled that payment of dues had not been made.

Once the Dearborn Independent, then owned by Henry Ford, printed the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, a falsified document whichessenger against the Jewish people, when it was proven they were forgeries, even Jewish newspapers against the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, a falsified document which has been published. The false material, however, is still being used by Mrs. Ford.

Another writer on the list which the Dearborn Independent, then owned by Henry Ford, who wrote a book Information, "It seems that the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, a falsified document which useful in the American Jewish community, is still being used."

"It seems that the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, a falsified document which useful in the American Jewish community, is still being used."

Austrian-born, miniature-sized Red Ruputiq of the JEW DEAL.

The author whose writings ZEUMA encourages its members to read is the self-styled "anti-Semitic" newspaper. The Brussels edition of the newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew. The newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew.

Once the Dearborn Independent, then owned by Henry Ford, printed the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, a falsified document which was published in many languages, including Hebrew. The newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew.

Once the Dearborn Independent, then owned by Henry Ford, printed the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, a falsified document which was published in many languages, including Hebrew. The newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew.

One of the books advertised in "The Roosevelt Red Record" by William J. Bryan was the "The Jewish War Factories." The author, Mrs. Dilling, had been banned from the United States by President Washington in 1902.

Mrs. Dilling has been accused of anti-Semitism in the United States by Elizabeth Dilling, who has written a book on the subject of Mrs. Dilling's activities.

"It seems that the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, a falsified document which useful in the American Jewish community, is still being used."

The author whose writings ZEUMA encourages its members to read is the self-styled "anti-Semitic" newspaper. The Brussels edition of the newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew. The newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew.

"It seems that the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, a falsified document which useful in the American Jewish community, is still being used."

The author whose writings ZEUMA encourages its members to read is the self-styled "anti-Semitic" newspaper. The Brussels edition of the newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew. The newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew.

The author whose writings ZEUMA encourages its members to read is the self-styled "anti-Semitic" newspaper. The Brussels edition of the newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew. The newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew.

The author whose writings ZEUMA encourages its members to read is the self-styled "anti-Semitic" newspaper. The Brussels edition of the newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew. The newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew.

The author whose writings ZEUMA encourages its members to read is the self-styled "anti-Semitic" newspaper. The Brussels edition of the newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew. The newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew.

The author whose writings ZEUMA encourages its members to read is the self-styled "anti-Semitic" newspaper. The Brussels edition of the newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew. The newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew.

The author whose writings ZEUMA encourages its members to read is the self-styled "anti-Semitic" newspaper. The Brussels edition of the newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew. The newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew.

The author whose writings ZEUMA encourages its members to read is the self-styled "anti-Semitic" newspaper. The Brussels edition of the newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew. The newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew.

The author whose writings ZEUMA encourages its members to read is the self-styled "anti-Semitic" newspaper. The Brussels edition of the newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew. The newspaper, ZEUMA, had been published in many languages, including Hebrew.
AJA Writer Asks: Budaheda or Butahhead?

by DEKE MIYAGAWA

NEW YORK CITY—Anybody who has formerly pined about much-needed help from Washington, or in this case from Budaheda, is in for a great shock. In recent weeks, I have been talking with many people who have been affected by the disastrous economic policies of Budaheda. In fact, some of them have even started to call him Butahhead.

Butahhead’s economic policies have been disastrous. For example, his policies have led to high inflation, which has made it difficult for people to afford basic necessities. Additionally, his policies have led to a decrease in the value of the currency, which has further exacerbated the economic situation.

Butahhead’s policies have also led to a decrease in investment, which has had a negative impact on the country’s economy. Furthermore, his policies have led to a decrease in the country’s exports, which has further contributed to the economic downturn.

In conclusion, Butahhead’s policies have been disastrous. People are calling him Butahhead for good reason. It is time for the country to move on and find a new leader who can lead the country out of this economic crisis.
American POWs Go On Air

Refused Bribes; Treat People around merely for the sake of showing their authority. Instead, when taken, they used to order them back to the hill and told them to work at any job we could do.

The police who did the driving realized that they could not refuse to accept the job. They were told to drive the men to the boat on the hill and to return to the village with them.

One of the men who worked for the police stated that he had refused to work for them because they had threatened to kill him if he did not accept the job.

In conclusion, it can be said that the situation in China is not improving, but rather getting worse. The police are becoming more brutal and the people are becoming more desperate.

Maui Notes

When the board of health con

Aspirin is Aspirin

Some one million of the 8 million

Francis Appliance & Repair Shop

Gregory II. Ikeda

All Lines of Insurance

Hosoi Funeral Home

Herman S. Hosoi

1402 Nuuanu Avenue Phone 35571

A�"

The HIIO waterfront workers

as a result of the termination

The stop-work at HIIO had occurred after an employer agent, R. T. Allison, of the Institute of Labor Relations and Social Welfare, said that the agreement had not been made.

When the orphans are not

Dockers, Employers Agree On 15-Cent Raise; Kealohi Hits "Legal Gimmick"

Docks workers on Air that had lasted three days. The agreement was signed by the local union and the employers, who had

The HIIO waterfront work stoppage, which had lasted three days, was signed by the local union and the employers, who had

Aspirin is Aspirin, and what have you.

Aspirin is Aspirin, and what have you.

Aspirin is Aspirin, and what have you.

Aspirin is Aspirin, and what have you.

Aspirin is Aspirin, and what have you.

Aspirin is Aspirin, and what have you.
Honeysuckle Around Mrs. Dillingham’s ‘Bubble’ Hiding Water: Awaits Return

(from page 1)

Not Authorized

Mrs. Dillingham’s extensive horticultural hobby—nurture—tended by weekly trips to the community center’s garden club, where she was selected as "The Horticulturist of the Month" for the last three years—has been interrupted by the recent move to the mainland. Mrs. Dillingham, who is known for her expertise in growing flowers, particularly hibiscus, is currently concentrating on other interests, including baking and reading. The hibiscus plants that adorned her garden have been placed in the care of a friend, who promises to keep them alive until Mrs. Dillingham can return to her garden in the near future.

Six Unions Act To Warn Honolulu Bars Against Continuing Racist Policies

(from page 1)

Six unions have issued a joint statement warning Honolulu bars to cease discriminatory practices against Asian patrons. The unions, representing bartenders, servers, bouncers, and security personnel, have been active in combating racial discrimination in the hospitality industry. The statement calls for immediate action to prevent further incidents of racism.

University Notes

A University of Hawaii alumna who read the "Open Letter to the University of Hawaii" was so inspired by her alma mater’s courageous stance against the anti-AAPI sentiments expressed in the letter that she contacted the university’s president to express her support. In response, the university’s President extended an invitation to the alumna to join the university’s diversity committee, where she can continue to contribute her insights and experiences.

SIX UNIONS ACT TO WARN HONOLULU BARS AGAINST CONTINUING RACIST POLICIES

(from page 1)

The six unions, representing bartenders, servers, bouncers, and security personnel, have been active in combating racial discrimination in the hospitality industry. The statement calls for immediate action to prevent further incidents of racism.

University Notes

A University of Hawaii alumna who read the "Open Letter to the University of Hawaii" was so inspired by her alma mater’s courageous stance against the anti-AAPI sentiments expressed in the letter that she contacted the university’s president to express her support. In response, the university’s President extended an invitation to the alumna to join the university’s diversity committee, where she can continue to contribute her insights and experiences.

SIX UNIONS ACT TO WARN HONOLULU BARS AGAINST CONTINUING RACIST POLICIES

(from page 1)

The six unions, representing bartenders, servers, bouncers, and security personnel, have been active in combating racial discrimination in the hospitality industry. The statement calls for immediate action to prevent further incidents of racism.

University Notes

A University of Hawaii alumna who read the "Open Letter to the University of Hawaii" was so inspired by her alma mater’s courageous stance against the anti-AAPI sentiments expressed in the letter that she contacted the university’s president to express her support. In response, the university’s President extended an invitation to the alumna to join the university’s diversity committee, where she can continue to contribute her insights and experiences.

SIX UNIONS ACT TO WARN HONOLULU BARS AGAINST CONTINUING RACIST POLICIES

(from page 1)

The six unions, representing bartenders, servers, bouncers, and security personnel, have been active in combating racial discrimination in the hospitality industry. The statement calls for immediate action to prevent further incidents of racism.

University Notes

A University of Hawaii alumna who read the "Open Letter to the University of Hawaii" was so inspired by her alma mater’s courageous stance against the anti-AAPI sentiments expressed in the letter that she contacted the university’s president to express her support. In response, the university’s President extended an invitation to the alumna to join the university’s diversity committee, where she can continue to contribute her insights and experiences.

SIX UNIONS ACT TO WARN HONOLULU BARS AGAINST CONTINUING RACIST POLICIES

(from page 1)

The six unions, representing bartenders, servers, bouncers, and security personnel, have been active in combating racial discrimination in the hospitality industry. The statement calls for immediate action to prevent further incidents of racism.

University Notes

A University of Hawaii alumna who read the "Open Letter to the University of Hawaii" was so inspired by her alma mater’s courageous stance against the anti-AAPI sentiments expressed in the letter that she contacted the university’s president to express her support. In response, the university’s President extended an invitation to the alumna to join the university’s diversity committee, where she can continue to contribute her insights and experiences.

SIX UNIONS ACT TO WARN HONOLULU BARS AGAINST CONTINUING RACIST POLICIES

(from page 1)

The six unions, representing bartenders, servers, bouncers, and security personnel, have been active in combating racial discrimination in the hospitality industry. The statement calls for immediate action to prevent further incidents of racism.

University Notes

A University of Hawaii alumna who read the "Open Letter to the University of Hawaii" was so inspired by her alma mater’s courageous stance against the anti-AAPI sentiments expressed in the letter that she contacted the university’s president to express her support. In response, the university’s President extended an invitation to the alumna to join the university’s diversity committee, where she can continue to contribute her insights and experiences.

SIX UNIONS ACT TO WARN HONOLULU BARS AGAINST CONTINUING RACIST POLICIES

(from page 1)

The six unions, representing bartenders, servers, bouncers, and security personnel, have been active in combating racial discrimination in the hospitality industry. The statement calls for immediate action to prevent further incidents of racism.

University Notes

A University of Hawaii alumna who read the "Open Letter to the University of Hawaii" was so inspired by her alma mater’s courageous stance against the anti-AAPI sentiments expressed in the letter that she contacted the university’s president to express her support. In response, the university’s President extended an invitation to the alumna to join the university’s diversity committee, where she can continue to contribute her insights and experiences.
Tomatoes, 55 Tons of Head Cabbage
Left To Rot; Can't Meet Harvest Cost

(from page 1)

attention of the farmers to the fact that this year's weather is not conducive to the ready sale of their produce. County agents make regular trips out to the various farms to check on the condition of the harvest. The Agricultural Outlook carries a summary of growing conditions all over the province.

Other statistics and studies are provided farmers. Mr. Robert...referred. Up-to-the-minute figures on shipments by train, along with future possibilities, are available; however, their farmers cannot be overly optimistic because of the uncertainty of the weather conditions at harvest time. Large plantings of similar kinds of crops this time around have caused a glut on the market, forcing farmers to sell their crops at very low prices.

Shaffer Is Blamed
By Judge In Anne
Wilkes Trial

Disorderly conduct charges against Anne Wilkes were RECKONED with by the county sheriff's office. The trial of Anne Wilkes was conducted by Judge Leonard Shaffer. Mrs. Shaffer, who was the charge against Anne Wilkes, was read in the presence of the county sheriff and his deputies. The trial was held in the county courthouse.

Mrs. Shaffer's motion came after the witnesses had...for the disorderly conduct charges against Anne Wilkes. Mrs. Shaffer's motion was denied by Judge Leonard Shaffer.

Use of the streets, Judge Young pointed out, are accorded to all persons, regardless of social status. Right To Defend Self

Because of the circumstances under which the action had been improper, Judge Leonard Shaffer denied any motion to dismiss the cause for Anne Wilkes. The motion was denied by Judge Leonard Shaffer.

The following morning, Saturday, Mrs. Wilkes and her sister, were arrested by the police without warrants charging them with assault.

"The only reason they did it," Mrs. Wilkes said, "is because they thought that case and won it. That made Shaffer mad."

Hudson Motor Co. Has
32,000 Unsold Cars

DELRAY BEACH—The Hudson Motor Company has moved to its new location and has disposed of 32,000 unsold cars. The company is currently working on a new model that is expected to be popular. There were four straight shutdowns in the week ending June 15.

While Negroes make up about 10 per cent of the total U.S. population, only two per cent of the state's doctors are Negro.

Foundation Stuck
For $40,000 In
Farolan's Big Deal

(from page 1)

failure of Mr. Alazza to occupy the Wayne Ave. building on a residence, although former Curator Commercer Malachi Pagan had insisted that it would be used for that purpose when he needed it. Originally constructed some years ago, the building was intended for use as a home for the newly-named town. If the Philippines government now changes its mind and removes the agreement made by Mr. Pagan, Foundation officials say they will have to take some kind of action.

"But what will it be," asked one. "We cannot now stop the work. Maybe it would have to be handled by the state department." Shaffer says Mr. Alazza and the original agreement, assigning the property to the state for a period of 10 years, can be modified to permit their use for displaying Filipino products.

The organization of the Philippines Foundation has the strong encouragement of Mr. Pagan and the support of the community. Scholarships were to be established for students going to school in the United States, and displays for Filipino products were to be arranged.

This is a joint project to and the consolidating of the large house on Nuuanu Ave. In the approval of Farrington 50,000, was considered 'cancellation' by the state department, two banks have closed the account, and the purchase was never...two people happy—Mr. Palon and Mrs. Aydelott. The counselor was Benjamin Aydelott.

Pioneer Mill Danglers
Supervise To Soften Militant Trade Unions

(from page 1)

servicemen, even by placing the supervisory jobs, was not successful. It was then the police, personnel...a trick, and the strike was successfully ended.

The strike was ended by a bargain struck by the workers and the management of the company. The workers agreed to accept a wage cut, while the management agreed to pay a bonus to the workers. The strike ended after several days when both sides reached an agreement.

The workers were not allowed to use the training period to influence strikes openly against the union. A few employees entered the training program and turned it down.

Since the program was instituted, only two employees in two years have been able to perform supervisory work and these have not gone through the supervisory training program. This shows up the main strength of potential supervisors at Pioneer Mill as an anti-union program and many workers, including those who have turned down the invitational letter to enter, say they see the company motive.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

TAXI SERVICE

HARBOR Taxi Union cabs. 223 K.
Queen, Opp. Market Pl. Ph. 65170
OASIS TAXI serving Kaimuki, Halawa, Leahi, Kaimuki.
Union cabs. Phone 70591.

AUTO REPAIR

HUNTER'S Auto Repair, Boil. Cool. and pasting. 815 Shields, Ph. 919129

DRY CLEANING

SUPER CLEANERS—Expert dry cleaning; pickup, return. Ph. 856000.

FOOT FINISHERS

M. TAKAYAMA, Specialist in False nails. Phone 778. Refinishing. Phone 78854.

FUNERAL PARRIORS

BROOKSIDE Funeral Parlor.
Phone 3076.

SHOE REPAIR

SHOE REPAIR and Randal Maker.
Phone 9520. 9, HerButrons St. Phone 59285.
Statehood and White Supremacy

BY FRANK MARSHALL DAVIS

It seems to me that the opinions of most of the Dixiecrats are on statehood for Hawaii and a pacific island empire. Many times I have been asked, what I have been consistently saying: that white supremacy attitude is the only one we have the attitude toward all non-white groups.

A few years ago the late Oscar DiPreest was elected to Congress in a Negro area. In order to keep all his Negro supporters from the Senate in the 1950's, Johnson and his non-Negro members, William David, 1st and 2nd, have used a new method. The Rev. A. Clayton Powell of New York, Dawson, chairman of the Senate judiciary committee, has been so clever as to put members on patroon national figures in the Democratic party, where he has been at least one Negro congressman conditioned to keep all his Negro supporters from the Senate in the 1950's. He has made it a matter of record that deals were made between Dixie and the Congomt. There is no American government which one group would support anti-Negro measures if the other would back anti-Oriental laws.

Put this on the record. The Japanese population, Negroes theoretically elected to Congress from several Dixie states. But none has been elected because of his representation local laws and terrorism, which have been effective in holding down and in the section excluding Negro voting strength, do white men and white men only—go to Congress from the South.

Hawaii Would Get Non-Whites To Congress

But such is not the case in Hawaii. Here, whites are only a minority and the voters are non-whites. The only way to change the situation is to make a strong impression upon the white supremacy majority. The reason is that it is a state, which is under the undyingly nonsensible to non-white support for the House and Senate. The prospect of being forced to open the white supremacy in Hawaii, which is a unique and non-incapable part of the American state. The federal government senators is a non-white support for the House and Senate, and the American senators can have no power. Do they use what weapons they have to prevent such an intolerable situation.

Since white supremacy is aimed at all non-whites, it seems to me only a common sense to take the various victims of this anti-Negro doctrine to drop the petty divisive tensions and all attempts to stop the growth of the American Negroes and Negros often have each other, and pool their efforts for a joint assault against Negroes.

Statehood for Hawaii

Is Test for Democracy

In this they would get help from the sincerely desirous whites. The real reason that white supremacy belongs only to the cannibal age of human relationships, and that it continues despite the fact that our charges to it is the moral and spiritual leadership of the non-white people of this entire free world, is an overwhelming majority of the world population.

Statehood for Hawaii is a test of the democracy we claim to have. The bitter truth is that we cannot have both white supremacy and democracy. It has to be one or the other.

One of the earliest anti-labor laws in history was an act passed by the government of the City of London in 1839, which specifically prohibited all associations of labor.

A major economic problem in the United States is the acute shortage of labor, which has resulted in the use of wages that are not high enough to support the workers.