

The University of Hawaii, College of Education, Project METALS presents...

Educator's Need-to-Know Workshop: Understanding Micronesian Students

September 13, 2003, 8:30 AM to 12:30 PM

Do you have any students in your classroom who are from Micronesia or whose parents are from Micronesia? Have you wondered why a Micronesian student exhibits behavior that surprises you? Do you wish you knew more about your Micronesian students and where they are coming from? This workshop will provide important information on three Micronesian cultures – Chuukese, Marshallese, and Pohnpeian – to help you better understand Micronesian students and their culture.

Culture resource teams will provide first-hand information on the cultures. Presenters include:

Graceful Enlet and Jocelyn Howard (Chuukese)
Enid McKay and William Swain (Marshallese)
Canisius Filibert and Kalisdus Saimon (Pohnpeian)

Date and Time: Saturday, September 13, 2003, 8:30 AM to 12:30 PM

Site: Central Middle School

Cost: Free! (McKinley Complex staff have priority.)

Space is limited, so register early!

Registration Checklist:

1. Duplicate form for each registrant.
2. Complete all sections of form (see below).
3. Copy completed form for your records.
4. Submit completed form (see section to the right).

Submit Completed Form (fax to 956-3374 or mail to):

Western Curriculum Coordination Center (WCCC)
College of Education, University of Hawaii at Manoa
1776 University Avenue, UA2-7
Honolulu, HI 96822

Inquiries: contact Ruth at 956-7969.

REGISTRATION FORM – 2003 EDUCATOR'S NEED-TO-KNOW WORKSHOP: UNDERSTANDING MICRONESIAN STUDENTS

Complete all sections.

Name: _____ Title: _____ School: _____

Home Address (# street): _____ (city): _____ (zip): _____

Phone (work): _____ (home): _____ Fax: _____ Mobile: _____

Email: _____

Registration Priority: priority will be given to Project METALS participants (McKinley Complex staff). All others will be wait listed in the order forms are received, and if space is available, then wait-listed registrants will be contacted. If you are not part of Project METALS and do not hear from us by September 12th, then you are not registered.

Deadline: Registration deadline is September 8, 2003. The sponsoring project reserves the right to cancel the workshop if minimum registration count is not met.

Disclaimer: By submitting a completed registration form, you grant permission to the College of Education staff to photograph and/or videotape you, and to use, without compensation, your likeness in future project-related publications regarding the workshop or related activities. Information provided on this form will remain confidential as allowed by law.