To turn the projector on, point remote at the projector and press the “on” button. Please wait one minute for the projector to warm up.

To display the computer, point remote at the projector and press “input 1” button.

To display the vcr, point remote at the projector and press “input 3” button.

To turn the projector off, point remote at the projector and press the “off” button twice.

Note:
  Once the projector is turned off, there is a 3-minute waiting period until it can be turned on again.