<<b2b_text_1 (Re: Notice of Event Involving Your Personal Information/Notice of Data Breach)>>

Dear <<First_name>> <<Last_name>>,

On behalf of the University of Hawai'i Cancer Center ("UHCC"), I am writing to notify you of an event that may have involved your Social Security number and other research data. This letter provides you with details of the incident, our response, and resources available to help you protect your information, should you feel it necessary to do so. We had some of your personal information as detailed below in connection with a cancer research study, the Multiethnic Cohort Study (MEC Study), dating back to the early 1990s.

What happened. On or about August 31, 2025, we identified a cybersecurity incident isolated to specific servers that support the research arm of the UHCC's Research Operations. We promptly took affected systems offline and took steps to terminate the unauthorized access and mitigate risk to data. Experts were immediately engaged to investigate and determine the nature and scope of the incident. The affected data was contained in research files. There has been no impact on clinical operations or patient care at UHCC. The incident was also reported to law enforcement.

What information was involved. During the investigation, it was determined that an unauthorized third party gained access to and had the opportunity to exfiltrate a subset of research files on the servers supporting research operations. The impacted files may have contained your name, <<b2b_text_2 (Data Elements)>>, information you provided to the MEC Study, and certain information about you pulled from national and state cancer registries, which gather information from across the country to help doctors and researchers understand how to better prevent, find, and treat cancer. Programs like the Multiethnic Cohort (MEC) Study use this data to understand how lifestyle, diet, and genetics affect cancer risks for different groups of people.

What are we doing in response. In addition to launching a forensic investigation into this incident and notifying individuals, we reset passwords, implemented additional technical and organizational protection measures, and enhanced the security of our systems. Our security team and third-party cyber professionals continue to monitor our systems 24/7 for any unusual activity.

What can you do. To help protect yourself, we recommend remaining vigilant by reviewing and monitoring your financial account statements, and free credit reports for suspicious activity. We have included some additional steps that you can take to protect yourself, as you deem appropriate. While we have no evidence that any personal information has been used inappropriately, we recommend you take precautions, and we are offering you 12 months of free credit monitoring and $1 million in identity theft insurance - to give you peace of mind. You must activate the free product by the activation date in order for it to be effective. The activation instructions are included with this notification.

For more information, please call toll free (844) 443-0842 between 8:00 am – 5:30 pm Central Time, Monday - Friday (excluding holidays). We continue to take steps to enhance its security measures to help prevent something like this from happening in the future.

Sincerely,

Naoto T. Ueno

Director, University of Hawai'i Cancer Center

Additional Steps You May Wish to Take:

- FREEZE YOUR CREDIT FILE. You have a right to place a 'security freeze' on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. A security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, using a freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal/financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application made regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving extension of credit. Security freeze generally does not apply to existing account relationships and when a copy of your report is requested by existing creditor or its agents or affiliates for certain types of account review, collection, fraud control or similar activities. There is no charge to place or lift a freeze. To place a security freeze on your credit report, contact each of the following credit bureaus and clearly explain in the call/letter that you are requesting a security freeze:

- Equifax, PO Box 740241, Atlanta, GA 30374, www.equifax.com, 1-800-685-1111
- Experian, PO Box 2002, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com, 1-888-397-3742
- TransUnion, PO Box 2000, Chester, PA 19016, www.transunion.com, 1-800-916-8800

To request a security freeze, provide your full name (middle initial, Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.), Social Security Number, date of birth; home addresses over the past 5 years; proof of current address such as a current utility bill or telephone bill; photocopy of government issued identification card (driver's license or ID card, military ID, etc.); and if you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft. If you request a security freeze via toll-free telephone or other secure electronic means, credit reporting agencies have 1 business day after receiving the request to place the freeze. In the case of a request made by mail, the agencies have 3 business days after receiving your request to place a security freeze on your credit report. Credit agencies must also send written confirmation within 5 business days and provide a unique personal identification number (PIN) or password, or both that can be used to authorize the removal or lifting of the security freeze. To lift the freeze to allow a specific entity or individual access to your credit report, you must call or send a written request to the credit reporting agencies by mail and include proper identification (name, address, and social security number) and PIN or password provided when you placed the security freeze as well as the identities of those entities or individuals you would like to receive your credit report or the specific period of time you want the credit report available. The credit reporting agencies have 3 business days after receiving a request to lift freeze for those identified entities or for the specified period of time. To remove the freeze, you must send a written request to the 3 credit bureaus by mail and include proper identification (name, address, & social security number) and PIN number or password provided when you placed the freeze. The credit bureaus have 3 business days after receiving the request to remove the freeze.

- PLACE FRAUD ALERTS ON YOUR CREDIT FILE. As an alternative to a security freeze, you have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on your credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is an alert lasting 7 years. Contact the 3 credit reporting agencies listed above to activate an alert.
- REMAIN VIGILANT: REVIEW YOUR ACCOUNT STATEMENTS & REPORT FRAUD. CHANGE PASSWORDS AND SECURITY VERIFICATION QUESTIONS & ANSWERS. Carefully review your credit reports, debit/credit card, insurance policy, bank account and other account statements. Activate alerts on your bank accounts to notify you of suspicious activity, changing passwords/security verifications as needed – particularly if same password is used over multiple online accounts. If your medical information was involved, it is also advisable to review the billing statements you receive from your healthcare providers. Report suspicious or fraudulent charges to your insurance statements, provider billing statements, credit report, credit card or bank accounts to your insurance company, bank/credit card vendor, healthcare provider and law enforcement, including FTC and/or your State Attorney General.
- ORDER YOUR FREE ANNUAL CREDIT REPORTS. Visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228 to obtain one free copy of your credit report annually. Periodically review a copy of your credit report for discrepancies and identify accounts you did not open or inquiries you did not authorize. (For Colorado, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Puerto Rico, and Vermont residents: You may obtain additional copies of your credit report, free of charge. You must contact each of the three credit reporting agencies directly to obtain such additional reports.)
 - Equifax, PO Box 740241, Atlanta, GA 30374, www.equifax.com, 1-800-685-1111

 - TransUnion, PO Box 2000, Chester, PA 19016, www.transunion.com, 1-800-916-8800
- LAW ENFORCEMENT INVOLVEMENT: Though law enforcement was notified of the incident, this notification has not been delayed as a result of a law enforcement investigation.

- FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT (FCRA): Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act: The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records).
