

A comparison of Hawai'i and California. Compiled by OVCAA, 10/9/03.

TRANSFER AND ARTICULATION POLICIES
(Education Commission of the States, February 2001)

State	Legislation	Cooperative Agreements	Transfer Data Reporting	Statewide Articulation Guide
Hawai'i	None	Course by course, department to department, institution to institution. [An Associate in Arts degree earned from a UH community college fulfills admission and general education core requirements of all UH baccalaureate degree granting institutions per E5.209].	Reported annually in the fall. [Reported "periodically" per BOR Policy, Chapter 5-13].	Available on the Web at http://www.hawaii.edu. [Currently, the most updated information on courses articulated to Mānoa within the UH system is at http://www.hawaii.edu/ovcaa/academics/articulation_courses.htm].
California	CAL EDUC. CODE § 66738: The governing board of each public postsecondary education segment shall be accountable for the development and implementation of formal systemwide articulation agreements and transfer agreement programs. CAL EDUC. CODE § 66740: Each department, school and major in the University of California and California State University shall develop, in conjunction with community college faculty in appropriate and associated departments, discipline-specific articulation agreements and transfer agreements for those majors that have lower-division prerequisites.	Agreements involve course or major requirements, not A.A. or A.S. ["Every California community college has an agreements with the University (of California), called a transferable course agreement (TCA) that specifies which of its courses receive UC transfer credit per http://www.ucop.edu/pathways/infoctr/at/atplan_trans.htm].	Reported annually by the California Postsecondary Education Commission	Available at transfer centers and on the Web at http://www.cpec.ca.gov