

Education Access Annual Report for 2021

Introduction

The following report is an overview of the Educational Access (EA) activities for the calendar year 2021. This report was compiled by the Hawaii Educational Networking Consortium (HENC) as a condition of the Educational Access agreement between ‘Olelo, Community Media and HENC. HENC is an informal consortium of the Hawaii State Dept. of Education (HDOE), the University of Hawaii (UH) and the Hawaii Association of Independent Schools (HAIS) formed in 1999 to jointly manage the formal institutional education access component of the programming that is funded by the cable franchise fees provided by Spectrum Cable and Hawaiian Telecom.

This report is divided into four major sections that include:

Section 1.0 - The Channels and their Programming	Page 1
Section 2.0 - The 2021 Awards	Page 2
Section 3.0 - Funding and Report Summary	Page 8
Section 4.0 - Appendices	Page 10

Section 1.0.0 - The Channels and Their Programming

Section 1.1.1 - EA Programming

There are two Educational Access channels on Oahu known as UHTV and TEACH. On Spectrum Cable these channels can be found as digital channel 355 for UHTV and channel 356 for TEACH. On Hawaiian Telecom TV the UHTV and TEACH channels also can be found on 355 (Olelo TEC) and 356 (Olelo TEACH). The programming reports for these channels during 2020 can be found in Appendix 1 and 2 of this report.

Programming Hours by Type by Channel	Total Hours of Core Programming	Hours of Locally Produced Programming	Hours of Repeat Programming
Year	2021	2021	2021
Channel 355 – UHTV University of Hawaii	8734	1791	6580
Channel 356 -- TEACH Hawaii Dept of Education	8576	4153	4288
EA Channels Total	17310	5944	10868

In addition, during 2021 the UHTV Video On Demand (VOD) Channel on Oceanic Cable continued to be made available to Oceanic subscribers. This channel is located on Oceanic Cable's channel 358. This service is available on Oahu, Kauai, Maui and Hawaii. The service, known as UHVOD, makes cable classes available on demand 24 hours a day, seven days a week, during each of the school semesters. Classes are loaded as the semester progresses and each class remains available through finals week. At the end of each semester all programming is cleared from the on-demand channels.

Section 1.1.2 - Other Channel Related Issues

No other channel related issues were reported during the 2021 year.

Section 2.0 - The 2021 Awards

In the plan for the 2021 year, the Hawaii Educational Networking Consortium (HENC) recommended three core awards for the purpose of developing and delivering educational programming on the Oahu UHTV and TEACH access channels and the statewide VOD channel. The purpose of each of the award funds is described in the sections below.

Core Programming

During the reporting period, HAIS completed the production of all seven films as planned. The films cover current education trends, new and notable programs and other topics relevant to best practices in teaching and learning. Each film provides insightful narrative and examples of how schools and educators are addressing the needs of today’s learners. Several of the films addressed issues of imminent concern, like the impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic on education, while others capture stories of how their education influenced their journey into adulthood. All the films produced serve as excellent resources for both Hawaii families and educators. The completed programs have been delivered for scheduling and broadcast on the TEACH channel. Below is a list of the videos completed by HAIS during 2021:

Hawaii Schools Digital Media (HSDM) Grants

During the reporting period HENC approved an additional $80,000 in funding for the Hawaii Schools Digital Media (HSDM) grants which range in size from $1,000 to $3,000 and are awarded to Hawaii public, private, charter and parochial schools to support student video and digital media activities in school video production clubs and courses. These funds are used to develop and expand the capacity of elementary, intermediate and secondary schools to produce video programming appropriate for cablecast on the Educational Access channels, on Public Television’s Hiki No program, and for submission to local and national K-12 video and media contests. All grant awards are tied to minutes of video programming that will be submitted during the 2021-22 academic year.

As part of this undertaking, HAIS promotes and distributes the digital media awards to the schools by facilitating the grant application process and review each year. Award recipients are also required to submit reports on their grant activities at the end of each academic year. The HENC web site provides HSDM grant forms for these purposes: <http://www.hawaii.edu/henc/hsdm/>

A total of $58,000 was awarded to 20 schools. This represents about half of the normal number of awards, which is a result of the significant disruption to academic programming caused by the current pandemic. Below is a list of the schools that received HSDM awards for the 2021/22 academic year, the amount of each grant award and the title of the project.

Section 2.2.3 - HAIS Supplemental Funding

There was no supplemental funding during this reporting period.

Section 2.2.4 - HAIS Award 2021 Summary

HAIS continues to produce quality video programming. Each video requires a significant amount of research to identify teachers and programs that are reflective of best practices in education. Subject matter experts and educational specialist are consulted to ensure that each film provides high-quality, relevant resources for Hawaii’s educators. Videos are then crafted to provide robust information and replicable classroom examples to ensure that practitioners have access to implementable ideas and practices.

The HAIS programming is valuable to the Educational Access cable subscriber community as it portrays a different facet for EA. The HAIS videos are a critical resource and are instrumental in ensuring that the private, charter and public school education workforce is well-prepared and well-supported in service of the children of Hawaii.

HAIS also provides a valuable contribution to the Hawaii Schools Digital Media initiative. HAIS oversees and promotes the digital media program, collects all grant applications, helps to review and assess applications, administers the project financial awards, and helps to maintain the HENC web site at <http://www.hawaii.edu/henc/>

Section 2.3.0 - Award No. 3 University of Hawaii (UH)

Section 2.3.1 - UH 2021 Award Funding Review

The term of this report is for the period from January 1, 2021 to December 31, 2021. The Educational Access funds awarded to the University of Hawaii for this review period were: $793,226.97.

Section 2.3.2 - Award No. 3 - UH Annual Review

Core Programming

The core of the University of Hawaii programming continues to focus on credit courses that allow students to regularly advance toward an Associate of Arts (AA) degree through a combined use of cable TV, the Internet and interactive television. Other Programming

Because the COVID-19 pandemic effectively shut down in-person learning on all UH campuses, the primary focus of UH online and cable services shifted to delivering the university's entire 2020 spring, summer and fall curriculum in a variety of remote learning formats. The large number of locally-produced programming hours reflects this extraordinary effort to allow all UH students on all islands to continue their coursework in spite of the pandemic.

Section 2.3.3 - UH Supplemental Funding

No new supplemental programming (SP) funds were allotted to the UH during the 2021 reporting period.

Section 2.3.4 - UH Award 2021 Summary

The UH continues to expand the Associates of Arts degree with a range of delivery options. During the reporting period UH provided 17,105 hours of programming for the UHTV channels (on Oahu digital 355 and 358). Most of this programming is also available on neighbor island channels that carry UHTV.

During the reporting period UH staff continued to meet regularly with the various producers and directors of Leeward, Honolulu and Kapiolani Community Colleges to discuss campus needs and to establish a budget for funding and structure a method for long-term scheduling of credit classes. This group also addresses the concerns of each campus and their video producers and instructional designers to allow for the continual improvement in the quality of their cable course offerings.

Finally, the continuing improvement in both of the Educational Access channels would not be possible without the support of ‘Olelo. The Hawaii Educational Networking Consortium thanks Roger McKeague and his team for their continued support of Educational Access programming during this very difficult period of time.

This report finds the program producing entities and the Educational Access channels to be in full compliance with the terms of Educational Access Agreement signed in 1998. If this is not found to be the case, the Senior HENC Program Coordinator, upon request, will attempt to resolve any issues, concerns or conflicts with ‘Olelo and the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs (DCCA) relating to the matters covered in this document.
