

Join Advocates of Public Interest Law for

WANTED

Holistic Policies Against Human Trafficking in Hawaii

Thursday, November 19th @ 3:45PM

UH Manoa William S. Richardson School of Law School Classroom 4

UH Gender Equity Specialist, Jennifer Rose, Esq., will lead a panel discussion, including

Bow Mun Chin, Esq. A senior staff attorney at the Hawaii Immigrant Justice Center, which serves Hawaii's indigent immigrant population.

Kathryn Xian Founder of Pacific Alliance to Stop Slavery, which educates the public about the growing problem of human trafficking, provides aftercare to victims, advocates for the passage of local state legislation to illegalize sex-trafficking.

Maria Elena Clariza Immigrant Specialist at the Domestic Violence Action Center and Philippine Specialist Librarian @ UH Manoa

Jennifer Allen A law student and activist for human rights.

Light pupus will be provided by co-sponsor Hawaii Women Lawyers ☺