INTERNATIONAL FILM NIGHT Coordinated by the International Cafe students FLAVOR OF HAPPINESS (Japan 2009)

In a classic mentor-apprentice relationship, a young widow moves to Kanazawa from Tokyo with daughter Noriko and winds up an apprentice to a Chinese chef after suffering a stroke and unable to run his diner. When the daughter is taken away by social workers, she proves her credentials by cooking for the engagement dinner of his benefactor's son. The dinner brings a cozy final touch to the various father-daughter relationships by focusing on the bittersweet reactions of the father-in-law giving away the bride-to-be. Introduction by Kalani Fujiwara, KCC Political Science.

INTERNATIONAL FILM NIGHT Coordinated by the International Café students
CITY OF LIFE AND DEATH (CHINA, 2009)

Within Asian history, few events carry the ugly connotations of the Rape of Nanking. Japanese forces invaded that Chinese city on December 9, 1937. Director Lu Chuan directs this black-and-white docudrama account of that six-week period. Lu relays the events directly and straightforwardly, with a careful avoidance of sensationalism and excessive sentimentality, and uses the chronicle to meditate on the insanity of war. Introduction by Kalani Fujiwara, KCC Political Science.
