

PUBLIC PRESENTATION

HE ALI'I KOHO MUA: A GLIMPSE INTO THE LIFE OF KING WILLIAM CHARLES LUNALILO

by

Kapuaokeli'ili'iokalani Renaud

Wednesday, January 30
12:00 pm
KAMA 210

This thesis was created to establish one of the largest archival repositories regarding one of Hawaii's nineteenth century rulers. King William Charles Lunalilo (January 31, 1835 – February 3, 1874) was an intriguing young man who excelled in poetry and song writing. The documents also shed light on his dedication to his people and how he helped to stem the rising influence and demands of foreigners.