

UHM Māori Program

Center for Pacific Islands Studies
University of Hawai'i at Mānoa

The Māori Program, College of Languages, Linguistics, and Literatures and the Center for Pacific Islands Studies present

MĀORI DAY @ UH MĀNOA

WEDNESDAY 2 OCTOBER

Featuring Te Kapa Haka o Te Pou-o-Mangatāwhiri

---

10:00am–12:00pm

Lawn in front of Hawai'i Hall at Varney Circle

---

Enjoy and participate in Māori culture, performance, waiata, poi, haka, and traditional Māori weaponry demonstrations.

Te Pou-o-Mangatāwhiri (performing troupe) was formed in 1921 under the guidance of Princess Te Puea Herangi, niece of Kīngi Te Rata, the third Māori King. In 2005, with the blessing and support of the late Māori Queen, Te Arikinui Te Atairangikaahu, Te Pou-o-Mangatāwhiri underwent a revitalization and has focused on performing arts as a medium for reviving stories, songs, dances, and other gifts handed down by their ancestors. Today, Te Pou-o-Mangatāwhiri participates and performs at various special tribal and Kingitanga occasions as well as the 2011 Rugby World Cup and World of Music Arts and Dance (WOMAD) events.

For additional information and disability access, please contact Katherine Higgins at 956-2658 or khiggins@hawaii.edu. The University of Hawai'i is an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution.

Find us on Facebook

