

Philosophy Department Colloquium Presents

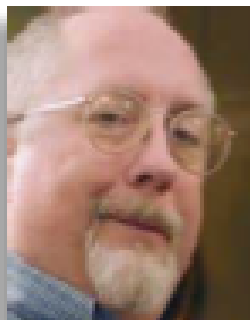

Kenneth Kipnis

Professor of Philosophy, University of Hawai'i at Mānoa

Friday – April 24, 2015 at 2:30PM
Sakamaki Hall C-308

‘ETHICIST’

Professor Kenneth Kipnis has spent most of his professional career working as an “Ethics Consultant” in a variety of non-academic settings. In this introductory essay to a collection of his “field reports”, he ruminates on his professional identity, on the nature of ethics consultation and his gradual entry into this re-emerging role.

Everyone is welcome to attend.
For disability access information, please call 956-8649.

