About Jack E. Myers

Since founding the Myers Development Company in 1974, CEO Jack Myers has developed an extensive portfolio of Hawai'i and California commercial, residential, hospitality, and industrial properties aggregating in values in excess of $1.7 billion. This has included nearly 1.9 million square feet of office buildings, mixed-use projects, resort and recreational projects, and over 2,500 units of residential inventory. He has also played a large role in helping to shape Honolulu's skyline with such iconic buildings as the First Hawaiian Center, Hawaii Prince Hotel, and One Archer Lane to name a few. Jack is a 1970 graduate of the Shidler College of Business and a 1998 inductee into the Hall of Honor. Jack and his wife, Zelie, created the Jack and Zelie Myers Endowed Scholarship Fund in 2007 to support the best and brightest students at Shidler.

Eddie & Elaine Flores, Jr.

Eddie Flores, Jr. has distinguished himself as a successful entrepreneur, educator, philanthropist, and community leader. He is president and CEO of L&L Drive-Inn/L&L Hawaiian Barbecue and founder of the Eddie Flores Real Estate School and Sun Pacific Realty. In 2007, Eddie and his wife Elaine established a $1 million endowed scholarship at the college which has provided over 160 scholarships to top business students. Eddie helped to establish the Filipino Community Center and Chinatown Community Center and authored articles and books on real estate and investment. His accomplishments led him to win over 20 local and national awards. A 1970 graduate of the Shidler College of Business, Eddie was inducted into the college's Hall of Honor in 2005 and was honored as a UHAA Distinguished Alumni in 1999. Eddie's support of the Shidler Real Estate Lecture Series is a testament to his passion for real estate.
